WORTH SAVING — These three lovable pups at Kenosha, Wis., can thank a police reporter for their lives. They were saved from the gas chamber when the reporter heard a call for the dog warden to pick them up. All three, offspring of a pedigree beagle, were adopted by the reporter's fellow workers.

Canucks Trounce Cougars; Regals Climb Out of Cellar

By The Canadian Press

Playoff time is still a couple of months away but Western Hockey League clubs are already jockeying for the playoff positions.

Friday night's action saw Vancouver Canucks down Victoria Cougars 4-2 to go 12 points ahead of the second-place club in the Coast Division.

On the Prairies, Edmonton Flyers downed the leading Calgary Stampeders 6-2 to move into second place, while Brandon Regals clipped Seattle Americans 6-4 to move ahead of Saskatoon Quakers and out of the Prairie cellar.

The shuffling showed that coast-wise, the league is getting crowded. Second-place Cougars have 39 points; third-place New Westminster Royals have 36 and cellarite Seattle 34.

Things are getting congested in the top of the Prairie Division, figures reading: Calgary 54, Edmonton 50, Winnipeg 40, Brandon 32 and Saskatoon 31.

GOALS SPREAD

Elliott Chorley, Gord Stratton, Norm Johnson, George Sentick, Murray Wilkie and Ray Munson counted for hometown Regals Friday while Bev Bell with two, Bill Robinson and Jack Bownass scored for Seattle.

In Edmonton, Eddie Stankiewicz, Ray Kinasewich, Lionel Repka, Billy McNeill, Gerry Meinyk and Billy Dea scored for Flyers. Steve Witiuk came through with both Calgary goals.

Forward Ray Cyr scored two for Canucks in Vancouver, the others coming from Fred Brown and Bill Wylie. Doug Macauley and Don Chiupka were the Victoria scorers.

Tonight's action could scramble the standings further as Victoria moves into New Westminster, Brandon goes to Saskatoon and Seattle visits Calgary.

SIGN OF TIMES

MONTREAL (CP)—E. S. Giles, director of Protestant education in Quebec province, says the one-room elementary schoolhouse is rapidly disappearing from Quebec. There were 76 of them in the province last year, compared with 91 the previous year.

Mike Souchak Leads Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)— Mike Souchak was cracking the whip today in Bing Crosby's pro-amateur golf circus, but semi-retired Ben Hogan and Memphis dentist Cary Middlecoff were hanging on in the co-favorite roles.

Souchak, former Duke University football player, rode a string of six birdies and an eagle to an eight-under-par 64 in Friday's opening round of the $15,000 tournament, being played on two of the three courses crowding the Monterey peninsula. Sunday's finals, involving the 60 low scorers, will be played on the third layout at Pebble Beach.

The 33-31-64 Souchak fashioned was on the Monterey Peninsula course, which is considered three strokes easier than the Cypress Point fairways over which both Hogan and Middlecoff played. That means Mike moved over today to the ocean-hugging course while his two foes tackled the inland links.

The tournament drew a strong Canadian contingent, at least numerically.

Jack Kay of Montreal shot a 69, Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Al Balding of Toronto fired 70s, while Gerry Kesselring of Kitchener, Ont., shot a 74.

Bud Loftus of Calgary had a 73 and R. L. Wylie, another Calgarian, a 77. Murray Tucker of Toronto shot an 81 and Leo Goldworthy of Vancouver a 90.

Middlecoff carded a 32-34-66 and Hogan a 35-32-67 at Cypress. Actually, though, they were running third and fourth in the race for the money behind Mike Fetchik, a younger Yonkers, N.Y., pro who trailed Souchak by only one stroke with a 33-32-65 at Monterey.

Hogan, who insists he has retired from competitive golf and is playing this tournament only for fun, was paired with Crosby and the two regaled a gallery of 3,500 with sparkling golf. So sparkling was it, in fact, that they led the best-ball field with a slim 31-29-60.

Crosby's seven handicap was the exact margin the pair chopped off Hogan's total score.

Influence of Russians On Increase in Africa

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Russia is increasing her influence in Africa, Western experts on African affairs report. They cite advices from diplomatic representatives which say:

In Libya, along the northern roof of Africa, Russia's first ambassador, Nikolai Ivanovich Generalov, is establishing a full-scale diplomatic mission with 18 aides. Generalov was Soviet ambassador in Australia at the time of the defection of Vladimir Petrov, who claimed later he was at the centre of a widespread espionage network.

In the Sudan, which became an independent republic Jan. 1, the government is weighing a Soviet offer to establish full diplomatic, trade and economic relations. The Sudanese also are understood to be considering informal suggestions from the Communists that economic and technical aid will be available to them if they should ask for it.

In the West African republic of Liberia, a Soviet goodwill delegation has offered to establish diplomatic relations. The Russians also offered engineering and financial help for the construction of a big hydroelectric project on the St. Paul river.

The Russians already have major diplomatic missions in Cairo and in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Certain Western officials express fear that Soviet representatives in Libya might be in a position to establish contacts with the nationalist rebel movements which are seeking to oust French rule from French North Africa.

Top Grid Stars See Action In Sunday Game

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The sixth annual pro bowl football game will be played Sunday in Memorial Coliseum with the finest professionals in the land colliding in the all-star studded engagement.

Kickoff is 1 p.m. and 40,000 or more fans are expected to see the long grid season come to an end.

It's the East against the West in the divisional battle and the West is a slight favorite to make the count 4-2 since the series was inaugurated in 1951.

Coach Sid Gillman of Los Angeles Rams, coaching the West, and big Joe Kuharich of Washington Redskins, tutor for the East, have an abundant supply of material.

Kuharich will lead off on offense with Adrian Burk of Philadelphia at the T-quarterback helm.

Gillhan's ace is Ram quarterback Norman van Brocklin.
