STRONG ARM OF THE LAW — A husky Paris cop makes short work of removing an illegally parked car. Easily picking up the rear of the lightweight auto, he sets the wheels in tandem carts, designed for hauling away vehicles left in gear. A tow truck pulled the car off to the city pound to await payment of a fine by the owner.

RED CHINA WITHDRAWS

Olympics To Go Ahead Unless World War Starts

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Preparations for the Olympic Games proceeded at full speed Tuesday unaffected by the announcement that Communist China was withdrawing its team because of the presence of a Nationalist Chinese group from Formosa.

The chief executive officer, Sir William Bridgeford, reiterated that the Games will not be endangered unless there is a general world war.

Actually, tensions eased considerably here, with the first Russian delegation camped at the Olympic village of Heidelburg and holding workouts as if unaware of fighting between Hungarian and Russian forces in Hungary. There have been no incidents.

The Olympic office has not received official word of the withdrawal of the Communist Chinese group although it has heard on Peiping radio that such notice has been given.

Communist China said it was withdrawing formally on the grounds that the Nationalist China group was an "outlaw band," which should not be tolerated.

It demanded the Olympic committee recognize only one China — Communist China — on the grounds that Formosa was "merely a Chinese province."

City Cagers Must Register For League Play

In announcing the 1956-57 League basketball procedures, general secretary of the Civic Centre, Fred Jones said today that all junior and teen members of the Civic Centre can apply at the desk for a pass which will entitle them to attend all league games free.

Mr. Jones has issued a notice to team managers that when all teams are registered, the league will begin.

All team members must belong to the Civic Centre otherwise the team will not be scheduled to play, he warned.

Mistake Found, Crown Contender Wins After All

MONTEVIDEO, Uraguay (AP) — German boxer Hans Stretz, a leading contender for Archie Moore's light-heavy weight crown was declared the winner of a battle with Dogomar Martinez of Montevideo early Tuesday after members of the National Boxing commission had rectified a mistake on one of the official's cards.

Stretz, ranked second by the National Boxing commission, appeared to be an easy winner in the bout here but the vote of the three officials called it a draw. Later inspection of the judges' cards, however, showed one incorrectly totalled.

Martinez, south American champion, was unable to cope with Stretz's attack and was knocked to the canvas for a six-count in the fourth round. Martinez, whose only previous defeat was to Moore in 1953, fought back gamely to stay the distance.
