OF RUPERT SOFTBALL LEAGUE

One of the largest turnouts ever recorded in past years attended the first meeting of the Men's Softball Association Wednesday night.

Eighteen enthusiasts gathered to elect a new executive and make plans for the forthcoming season. Elected to the office of president was Terry Blocka.

Others elected to office were Ron Davies, vice-president; Reg. Guy, secretary-treasurer; assistant-secretary, Laurie Jenner; and publicity and scoring, Phil Gurney.

An indication of four possible entries was made, but sponsors for the teams have not yet been obtained. The tentative starting date of the league is May 15.
