SEEING WITH HIS HANDS — Barney Duncan, one of the 30 blind or almost-blind workers at a state-owned factory in Griffin, Ga., sorts out rivets and screws from the sweepings of the Lockheed Aircraft plant in nearby Marietta. Thousands of dollars are saved each year by the sensitive fingers of these blind workers. The reclaimed parts are sold back to the plant by the state.

QUEBEC BILL ON NEWSPRINT COULD CURB PRESS—COLDWELL

OTTAWA (CP) — CCF leader Coldwell says Quebec's newsprint control bill could be used to curtail freedom of the press in that province.

He made the statement in the Commons Monday in introducing a resolution which proposed an amendment to Canada's constitution to protect human rights and freedoms.

Mr. Coldwell said the provincial law, to regulate production and distribution of Quebec newsprint, could be used to halt publication of newspapers or magazines which provincial authorities did not like.

"I say at once that I do not know that the legislation would be used for that purpose," he said. "But the obvious inference on reading the legislation is that it might be used for that purpose."

The Commons came to no conclusion on Mr. Coldwell's resolution. Justice Minister Garson, opposing it on constitutional grounds, continued the debate until adjournment and the resolution now is unlikely to be debated again this session.

MILITIA EXPERT TO MAKE WESTERN TOUR NEXT MONTH

OTTAWA (CP) — Maj.-Gen. H. F. G. Letson, the chief of staff's adviser on militia matters, plans a two-week tour of militia units and group headquarters in the Prairie provinces and British Columbia February 6-20, the army announced today.

In a study of developments since the reserve army was reorganized as the militia in 1954, he will be accompanied by Lt.-Col. W. G. A. Lambe, staff officer in the directorate of militia and cadets at army headquarters.

Their itinerary: Vancouver, February 6-8; Victoria, February 10; Edmonton, February 14; Calgary, February 15-16; Regina, February 17; Saskatoon, February 18; Winnipeg, February 19-20.

Bulganin Back After "Resting"

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Russian Premier Bulganin was back at work Monday after a four-week absence from public duties, a member of his office said. The premier's last appearance in public was at an East German reception January 3. Since then he has been reported "resting" in the country after his month-long tour of India, Burma and Afghanistan and the Supreme Soviet's session at the end of December.

The cotton industry in Lancashire, England, employs 270,000 workers.

LONDON (CP)— Coke production in Britain dropped 26,394 tons to a total of 1,567,313 in 1955. Officials blamed the country-wide railway strike in early summer which necessitated damping down of coke ovens.
