PRINCESS LOUISE VICTORIA OF PRUSSIA.

The daughter of the Kaiser, who was married to Prince Ernest of Cumberland at Berlin Saturday week. This is the latest picture taken of the beautiful bride, who is now Duchess of Cumberland and Brunswick. The latter title came as the wedding present of her father, the Kaiser, who handed over the ancestral Hanoverian realm for his son-in-law to govern. This compact is an event of international interest, as it obliterates the ancient feud between the houses of Hohenzollern and the Guelphs.

PRINCESS MARY PROPOSES TO LORD KITCENER SERIOUSLY

KING GEORGE LAUGHED HEARTILY BUT QUEEN WAS ANGRY AND PRINCESS WAS PUNISHED—SHE IS "SWEET SIXTEEN."

London, June 3.—Princess Mary of England, only daughter of King George, has proposed to Lord Kitchener. The royal proposal was whispered in the park of Windsor Castle one evening not long ago. Field Marshal Lord Kitchener gallantly asked the little princess to talk with her father about the alliance. The match is off.

The grizzled hero of Khartoum, home for a spell from Egypt, was escorting the princess about the grounds. He is 62 years old, tall, straight as an arrow, stern as an Indian chieftain. She is 16, shy and a hero worshipper.

There was a lull in the conversation as they walked over the well kept grounds, and Princess Mary, with her hand on his arm, told the renowned soldier, amid some confusion, that she had something important to say.

Royal custom demands in cases of courtship between a woman of the royal blood and a man of lesser nobility that the proposal be made by the woman. The embarrassment of this was what the little princess had in mind, and she said so, frankly enough, despite her blushes. She wanted to become her hero's wife, she said, and since she had to propose, she was doing so.

For the first time in many years Lord Kitchener smiled. He took heroic pains to conceal his amazement and amusement, however, beyond this one manifestation. He told the princess that he appreciated the great honor she conferred upon him by even considering his eligibility to become her escort, but that he felt much too old to consider it.

Something of the princess before she put the question and she was prompted with a rejoinder. With a laugh she waived aside the age objection, saying that her aunt, the crown princess, had married a man many years her elder and had lived a perfectly happy wedded life.

King Laughed; Queen Furious. Thus placed on the defensive, Lord Kitchener made no definite reply to the proposal, suggesting instead that the princess talk the matter over with her father, the king.

A day or so afterward Lord Kitchener told King George of the naive proposal and the mo-

CAPTURES A BRIDE ENGAGED TO A RIVAL

Seattle Man Wins Portland Girl in a Sensational Elopement and Marriage.

Portland, Ore., June 3.—In a sensational elopement and romantic marriage last night Will Curran, an engineer of the Pacific Telephone Company, of Seattle, carried off his bride in an automobile only four days before she was to have married another man. Today Curran and his bride, who was Miss Beryl M. Litherland, of 1329 Rodney avenue, have departed on their honeymoon. Royal A. Fultz, "the other man," has gone into temporary retirement.

Miss Litherland was being entertained last night in honor of her approaching marriage to Fultz. While the festivities were in progress, Curran drove up to the house of Mrs. Frank Converse, where the party was held. By prearrangement, Miss Litherland answered when he rang the door bell, leaped into the automobile, where Curran's two sisters were awaiting her, and the party drove to the residence of Rev. Henry Marcotte, where the wedding was solemnized.

Meanwhile the reception guests had reported the kidnaping to the police and the entire neighborhood was in excitement until a telephone message was received from the bride.

LIBERAL TEACHER LOST EMPLOYMENT

Conservative Board Dismissed Him for Speaking Against the Borden Naval Bill.

Vancouver, June 2.—Because he was a Liberal and discussed the naval bill from Sir Wilfrid's point of view was sufficient for W. D. John, engaged as school teacher by the school trustees of Cache Creek, in the Cariboo district, to lose his employment. The Conservative trustees dismissed him with payment by the day instead of by the month as stipulated in the School Act.

Mr. John accepted the position on January 10. He arrived in Ashcroft on January 15. The school was to open on January 20, but owing to the severity of the weather the institution remained closed during that month. Taking up his appointment, Mr. John filled the register he was dismissed without any reason.

Owing, perhaps, to the former teacher there being a Conservative, he received a full month's salary for a few days' work. Despite the conditions laid down in the School Act, the trustees went out of their way in Mr. John's case and presented him with payment for the number of days' worked. One of the trustees was favorable to the claim of Mr. John, but the others would not even consider the request.
