Skiers Out Over Weekend

With snow and cold weather returning this past week, ski enthusiasts have been enjoying the sport again after several rainy week-ends.

Sunday saw many skiers out at the Prince Rupert Ski Club tow, it was reported today by a spokesman for the Prince Rupert Ski Club.

The spokesman also said that since the films showing last week was so poorly attended, it will be discontinued.

The club also expressed its appreciation to those persons who rallied to search for two skiers thought lost Sunday.

One of the two skiers broke a ski and so the pair decided to stay in a cabin overnight instead of returning as previously planned.

Those planning the search party were: Odd Eidsvik, Percy Young, John Fredheim, Andy Marshall, Bill Sunberg, Joe Halkel and Mike Young.
