Conscription Only Fair Way Says Veteran

VANCOUVER (CP)—Conscription is the only fair way to fulfill Canada's defence obligations, Rev. J. O. Anderson, president of the Canadian Legion, said here Tuesday.

The rector of Christ Church cathedral in Ottawa, arriving here for the five-day national convention of the Legion June 10-14, said Canada needs conscription because "before long, we won't have enough men to meet our overseas committments under the North Atlantic treaty."

"It shouldn't be left up to the conscience of the individual," he said. "It isn't fair. Impartial selection is what is needed."

Th 43-year-old veteran said: "right now Canada is the only major member of NATO which hasn't got conscription."

Everett Club Exhibition Set

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Everton soccer team arrived here Tuesday night to the strains of the wrong kind of music.

The team from the north of England was greeted by four bagpipers. They'll play here Saturday against a team for which the music would have been more appropriate—Aberdeen, Scotland.

Sponsors of the game reported Tuesday that 12,000 tickets had been sold for the game in Empire Stadium.

Anglers Rescue "Tired" Carp

WOLCOTT, N.Y. (AP)—It was a "tired" carp that three fishermen landed Monday in Sodus bay on Lake Ontario.

Hafold Teeple, Nathan Aldrich and Floyd Sheldon spotted an old automobile tire submerged. One of them saw it move.

The trio pulled the tire from the water and found a 30-pound carp with its head wedged in one side of the casing and its tail in the other.
