Joint-School Program Ends Education Week Activities

Before an audience of about 300 in the King Edward School auditorium, selected groups of students from the four city schools last night put on an entertaining musical program, concluding with a gymnastic display, as a wind-up to the activities of Education Week.

Guest speaker at the occasion was Rev. R. J. Wray who, with the "Challenge to Educate" as his subject, stressed the need to bring out the whole personality of children rather than merely to provide them with the equipment of education.

"Unless we give them the capacity to handle that equipment, we may give them the power to destroy themselves," he said. "There is a prevalent idea that education means filling facts at a child's mind in the hope that some of them may find the target.

"That is a limited view of education. What we must do is to face the challenge of educating the whole personality—spiritual, mental and physical. To educate means to lead out, to stimulate, to strengthen the sinews of mind, soul and body. Every child has a latent capacity in these three respects and we are presented with the challenge of developing it."

The speaker said he would sooner see a child grow up as a "street-sweeper with character and integrity than as a chief of police who is corrupt or as a politician who has attained his position through nefarious means."

Rev. Mr. Wray said that education is the foundation of democracy provided it is kept as everybody's business, while the weapon of a dictatorship is indoctrination.

"Canada is free," he observed. "As we believe, so we act. Thank God for the right to feel that education is everybody's business. It is our answer to dictatorship."

VARIED PROGRAM

With Ian Currie as chairman, the program opened with selections by the girls' choir of Booth Memorial High school who sang Tea for Two and Brother James' Air. Leonard Leighton was at the piano.

This was followed by the rhythm band of Grade 2 at Border Street School who with Mrs. J. A Rutherford in charge, did four numbers. They were the Rhythm Band Song, Hickory Dickory Dock, Space Travel and Marching Off.

Two English folk dances were then performed by girls of Grade 6 at King Edward School, directed by Miss Rosemary Simcock. Their dances were the Crested Hen and Varsovienne.

Next on the program was the mixed flutophone band of Grades 5 and 6 at Conrad Street School in the charge of Donald MacDonald. The band's five selections were Marine's Hymn and Caissons, Meisiefontein, Country Gardens, Cockles and Mussels, Old Folks at Home and Clementine.

A tumbling display by the gymnastic team of Booth Memorial High School, directed by Peter Merron, concluded the program. Prolonged applause at the end attested the success of the whole show.

Hans Schmidt, Patricia Lemon Exchange Vows at Cathedral

In a setting of white spring flowers accented by flickering candlelight, Patricia Charlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Lemon, 657 Fifth Avenue East, last night became the bride of Hans Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Schmidt, 1305 First Overlook Street, in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral with Canon Basil S. Prockter officiating.

Walking up the aisle on the arm of Thomas B. Black, in the absence of her father, who is ill, the bride wore a white ballerina-length gown fashioned of Swiss embroidered nylon lace featuring a triple-tiered skirt. The enfolded net bodice was topped with a lace jacket off-set with a pearl encrusted collar. Her finger-tip illusion net veil was secured by a crown of pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses. Gold and pearl earrings, a gift of the groom, was her only jewellery.

Miss Lorna Melvin as bridesmaid chose a pale green nylon tulle ballerina-length gown complemented by a yellow flowered head band and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

George Schmidt, brother of the groom was best man while ushers were Dick Dodd, cousin of the bride and Kenneth Black. Peter Lien was organist.

At the reception in the Commodore cafe, an heirloom tablecloth, used at the wedding of the bride's parents, covered the bridal table, which was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother. Pink and white tapers completed the supper table setting.

Mr. Black proposed the toast to the bride while the best man proposed the toast to the bridesmaid.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a navy blue cocktail dress, pale blue accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a full-skirted tan colored gown, pink and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Newlyweds left today for a 10-day motor trip in the interior of British Columbia. The bride wore a blue tailored suit off-set with British tan-colored accessories for the trip.

On their return, they will take up residence at 1002 Sixth Avenue East. Mr. Schmidt is employed with Shenton Sheet Metal while Mrs. Schmidt is a bookkeeper at Albert and McCaffery Limited.

Out of town guests were Patrick Beaton and Mrs. William Melvin of Terrace and John Clifton and Stephen Robinson of Hartley Bay, B.C.

Also attending the wedding was the bride's grandmother Mrs. Henry Doiron of Vancouver presently visiting in Prince Rupert.

Saturday Sermon

By REV. C. W. SINCLAIR — Free Evangelical Church

II Cor. 5:21: "For He hath made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him."

In this verse our Lord Jesus Christ is set forth as the Saviour of the world. The holy son of God, "who knew no sin," this speaks of His divinity, that is to say that it takes more than man, born in Adam and under sin to produce a holy life.

The Bible declares that "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God" . . . "there is none righteous no not one." So Jesus Christ, as true God and true man was in a position to pay the price for sin because He himself was not under the bondage of sin, but rather "knew no sin"; and being free from sin was able to bear our sins on His own body on the cross. He died there on our behalf and is now able to impart His righteousness to us.

Man today is trying to better himself morally and socially from the outside in, whereas, the "Gospel" betters a man from the inside out.

Many people in the world today are like the Jews of whom Paul wrote about . . . Romans 10:2-4 "For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

Realizing then that God's righteousness far exceeds our righteousness . . . "Isaiah tells us "All our righteousness are as filthy rags." So all we have to do is accept Him as our Saviour—and let Him come into our heart by faith. Then we have His righteousness!

"Christ in you the Hope of Glory" . . . When we accept Gods way, we find that within ourselves, an amazing change takes place in our hearts." We have passed from death unto life," We need no more fear death because we stand complete in Him with our sins forgiven: "a new creature in Christ Jesus." Then, why not accept Christ's atonement for your sins?

If Jesus be not one with God
Oh, vain the hope to see
His righteous rule o'er all the earth,
His final victory!
But Jesus Christ is God
Himself,
Though subtle minds deny:
No word of sage can make Him less,
Nor lift man up so high.
