Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wilson of Vancouver arrived Sunday morning on the steamer Prince Rupert. Mr. Wilson intends to stay a short time in Granby Bay.

Everybody in Granby Bay is looking forward to the First of July as being one of the biggest days in the history of the place. Several hundred dollars are to be distributed as prizes among the winning sports of the day.

Large shipments of lumber and steel are arriving on all boats for the Granby Company. The work on the smelter is rapidly progressing and the company is eager to have it completed before the end of the year.

The First Church temporary building will be occupied Sunday night for the first time, and Mr. Patterson, the Presbyterian missionary, is glad that the building is so well equipped and fitted for the work in such a short time.

Mr. C. J. Gillingham, the government road superintendent of Stewart, is spending a few days here on a business trip. The road which is being built between the Queen's Hotel and the Granby Company's property is rapidly progressing under the foremanship of Max Wade.

PREPARING THE ATTACK ON PRESIDENT WILSON

President is to be Tackled on Floor of Senate—Several Democrats to Take Fall Out of Him.

Washington, June 17.—That President Wilson is to be made the target of a broadside of Republican criticism for "interference" in the senate when the lobby investigating committee makes its report was indicated today by Senators Townsend of Michigan and Works of California.

Not only do they propose to discuss what they call the "Wilsonizing" of Democratic senatorial minds on free sugar and free wool, but they may introduce a resolution redefining the respective powers of the executive, the legislative and the judicial branches of the government.

Killed by Lightning.

Moosejaw, Sask., June 16.—Ralph W. Dawson, a homesteader, was killed by lightning at his farm, 20 miles southwest of Expanse, Friday morning when riding on a load of lumber.

G. D. Tite's stock of house furniture is up-to-date in hand—some designs. 128-1f

NEW STEAMER FOR THE COAST SERVICE

British Steamer Melmore, Which Has Just Returned from Cocos Island Treasure Expedition.

Vancouver, June 17.—The little British steamer Melmore arrived on Thursday morning and is anchored in the stream, completing a voyage from England, which included a hunt for treasure on Cocos Island, a hunt which failed.

Captain Polkinghorn is in command and he is well known here, having brought several steamers to Vancouver from the United Kingdom. The captain went to England ostensibly with the object of buying another steamer for coast service and apparently he is going to carry out his plans with the Melmore.

Now Able to Walk.

Don Peck, the son of Hal Peck of Georgetown, who was operated on a few days ago for appendicitis, has recovered with remarkable rapidity. He was able to walk around the hospital yesterday, and it is expected that he will soon be out of doors.

Our grand business is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.—Carlyle.
