CPGA tourney won by unknown Edmontonian

CALGARY (CP) — Edmonton's Henry Martell popped up out of nowhere Tuesday to win the $5,000 CPGA tournament on a four-under-par 66 final 18 after two so-so rounds. His final flourish wiped out an eight-stroke lead built up by Murray Tucker of Toronto. Tucker blew it with a five-over-par 75 that sent him tumbling into second place one stroke behind the westerner.

The slip meant $300 to Tucker, the difference between the first place $1,000 prize money and

Gordon Pirie places first

Britain's Gordon Pirie Tuesday won the 5,000-metre run at the Oslo games in a brilliant performance just 30 minutes after he had competed in the 1,500-race.

Pirie's victory in 14:03 over the Russian gold and silver medal winners at the European championships in Stockholm overshadowed the performance by Australia's four-minute-miler Marv Lincoln.

Canadian wounded in Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (CP)—A Canadian soldier was wounded during a clash Tuesday between rebel and Lebanese army forces. He regained consciousness today but was still on the danger list.

Sgt. Ralph Hall of the Canadian Postal Corps, attached to a United Nations observer group mail unit, was wounded in the head and body while driving through a suberb of Beirut.

"We think he will pull through" a hospital doctor said today.

The gunfight occurred shortly before Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold of the UN flew into Beirut from New York on his Middle East peace mission.

All was quiet when the UN secretary-general drove into town under escort of Lebanese armored cars and security police.

HEADS FOR JORDAN

The UN chief took off for Jordan today on a mission aimed at the withdrawal of U.S. and British troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

The clash in which Sergeant Hall was wounded was reported to have flared between Lebanese security forces and agitators in a Palestine refugee camp located within rebel lines. Hospital sources said two Lebanese were killed and six injured.

Sgt. Hall was reported to have been driving in a white jeep of the UN observer group with which he was attached when he was caught in the cross-fire and severely wounded.

He was taken to the American army hospital with forehead, shoulder and chest wounds.

Hammarskjold and three aides flew to Amman in a UN courier plane for talks with King Hussein and his government. During his overnight stop in Beirut, Hammarskjold conferred only with UN officials.
