FAMOUS PITCHER SENTENCED TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

DEMON DUGGIE THE STAR PITCHER of the DUCK ALLEY CHAMPS - IS "KEPT IN" ON THE DAY OF THE GAME!

NEWS NOTES FROM MASSET

Arthur Robertson has been appointed fire warden for the northern end of Graham Island. The proprietor and publisher of the Islander has decided to move his plant to Queenstown, Masset Inlet.

The British Empire landed 60,000 feet of lumber at Graham Centre last trip for building purposes. The residents of Masset are agitating for an hospital. A large number of cases have been sent to Prince Rupert through lack of a building and nurses at Masset.

Three services on one Sunday was a record for the respective clergymen of the Anglican, Roman Catholic and Presbyterian congregations of Masset. A government poultry station has been started at Masset, where eggs are disposed of to those desirous of engaging in the poultry business.

The commissioners appointed to investigate all matters pertaining to Indian lands will visit Queen Charlotte Islands about September 1st. C. Harrison has commenced his duties as fishery overseer, and will visit the several localities where fishing is in progress in H. Edenshaw's launch.

The telephone at the fire hall was busy all morning conveying felicitations to the proud parent. Sir Thomas Lipton plans to have a model tea garden and packing plant at San Diego's exposition. He agrees to move the packed tea as fast as it is wrapped and to bring tea plants from Ceylon for the garden.

Local spring salmon, after being mild cured, are sent to Germany, where a large market has recently been worked up. Contractor W. G. Gillett has about completed the Sandspit wharf. He left last Monday night for Prince Rupert on business.

Spring salmon are running on the west coast, near the entrance to Skidegate Inlet. Several good catches have been obtained during the past week by local Indians. If the salmon should prove to be as plentiful at this end of the island as at the north end it would certainly give Queen Charlotte a much desired lift.

Fishermen off Langara Island are averaging one thousand pounds of spring salmon each week. Miss Miller has resigned her position as teacher of the Queen Charlotte school and left on a visit to England.

DER 'VIGGLEVAGGLE' BARRED IN BERLIN

Police President Forbids Hot Steps in Decorous Capital of the Kaiser

Berlin, June 30—"Der Vigglevaggle" (pronounced like Wagner) dances are not for Berlin. Gay place Berlin, mad place Berlin, "city that never sleeps" Berlin, but just the same the turkey trot, the tango, the bear and bunny hugs, the anaconda clutch and so forth—none of those "vigglevaggle" hotsteps will be tolerated in the incandescent jewelled capital of the Kaiser. Raus mit der spiel of der rag!

Such is the order of Herr president of the Berlin police, and in the fashionable restaurants and popular dance halls the syncope has dolefully slipped out of the music of the band and the gloom of the tenuous two-step or the middle-aged weariness of the old-fashioned waltz has set in.

ANOTHER FIREMAN Fire Chief Now Walking with a Pronounced Strut.

When Fire Chief McDonald was waiting at the dock as the Prince George came in yesterday morning to greet his wife on her return from a two months' trip to Spokane he was able to welcome not only Mrs. McDonald but an addition to the family, a fine boy. The telephone at the fire hall was busy all morning conveying felicitations to the proud parent.

Sir Thomas Lipton plans to have a model tea garden and packing plant at San Diego's exposition. He agrees to move the packed tea as fast as it is wrapped and to bring tea plants from Ceylon for the garden.
