British yacht performs well

GOSPORT, England (AP)—The 12-metre yacht Sceptre, Britain's challenger in this year's America's Cup race, arrived Friday after a 600-mile maiden voyage from Scotland. The trip took six days.

"We are delighted with her performance so far," said Commander Sam Brookes.

The Sceptre will undergo minor repairs before starting racing trials off England's south coast next week. She is to be shipped in June to the United States for the America's Cup rase in September.

Nurses plan church parade next Sunday

A nurses church parade will be held May 11 at the Sunday evening service in First Presbyterian church.

The decision to hold the event for the third consecutive year was made Thursday night at a Prince Rupert Chapter Registered Nurses association of B.C. meeting in the Nurses' residence.

Mrs. Victor Pick, vice-president in the chair, urged that all nurses attend the annual parade. She suggested that while it was hoped nurses would wear uniforms, they could attend in street clothes.

In other business the meeting voted to award the annual nurse's bursary later in the summer. The decision was made following an address by R. F. Lucas, principal of Booth Memorial High school on "Presentations of Bursaries" at the groups last meeting.

to $115 a week, a deskman or copy editor about the same. A city editor receives between $135 and $145 a week and a managing editor a lot more than that. Those are goals for which to aim. Pierre Berton was city editor of the old Vancouver News Herald at 21, the youngest man in Canada to hold such a post. Jack Scott started at the News Herald as a copy boy at 16 and ultimately became its city editor. So it can be done.

Naturally we are prejudiced but we feel it lamentable that so few young people take an interest in the English language, expressing themselves by writing or following it up by joining a newspaper to learn the business from the start. Of course, as we said before, it involves hard work. Maybe that's the reason.

Red weightlifter sets new mark

LONDON (AP)—Russian weightlifter Vasily Stepanov has set a world record by lifting 150 kilograms (330.693 pounds) in the two hand press, Moscow radio reported Sunday night.

YOU AUTO KNOW!

So this story comes out in the press that Chrysler Corporation lost a few million in the first three months of this year and who gets the blame—me of course for selling cars at $2695.00 fully equipped. And further more I'm going to keep on selling them at $2695.00 fully equipped until they track me down. Being out here on the west coast gives me a bit of an edge so it looks as though we can keep pushing until they put the finger on me for certain.

And speaking of the west coast it was nice to see this press do a job on bringing to our attention the fine fishing fleet that left us over the weekend to face the gales of the angry straits on our behalf. And if this paper had gone to press on Saturday it would have written of the misfortunes of some of that hardy group before we heard the story over Vancouver radio stations. Maybe Mr. Frank Howard can talk to CBC bigwigs when he reaches Ottawa and talk them into allowing our noble little transmitter to allow sponsorship of a local news program — t'aint proper according to present regulations which is strange isn't it?

And to all you people that are calling in requesting further into on this amazing offer on the 1958 PLYMOUTH SEDANS — its no gimmick! And we take trades and we take anything in trade from the family goat to your neighbors lawnmower. And this rumor about one to a customer is absolutely incorrect.

Fact of the matter is you can have two 1958 PLYMOUT SEDANS which are now selling for the price of $2695.00 each for a total of $5000.00—a further saving of $195.00 per car.

And if you have your picture taken beside one of our 1958 Plymouth Sedans you won't look as sad as others I've seen lately because you won't have those years of heartbreaking payments ahead of you—$2695.00 doesn't take so long.

The talk being heard about the pending retirement of Gentleman Jack McIntosh from the staff of our Civic Centre will bring that feeling of gratitude to the many of us that have taken advantage of his good nature over the years he has served so unsparingly on behalf of ourselves and our children. Seems they've thrown away the mould that made men like Jack and we can hardly afford the loss.

See you around Rupert Motors if you are looking for a deal in a car—I'm there most of the time.

MANCHESTER U DEFEATED 2-0 IN ENGLISH SOCCER CLASSIC

LONDON (CP)—Nat Lofthouse, 32-year-old soccer great with Bolton Wanderers, scored both goals Saturday to give his team its first Football Association Cup in 29 years as the Wanderers outpointed Manchester United 2-0 before more than 100,000 fans at Wembley.

Lofthouse, making what could be his last appearance in a cup final, robbed Manchester of the sporting comeback of the year with a goal in each of the halves.

Although Manchester had flabbergasted the experts by winning five elimination games to enter the final after the once-mighty club had nearly been wiped out in a plane crash at Munich Feb. 6, inexperience and nerves told on them Saturday.
