Sweethearts of Centennial year win plaudits

The fifth birthday of "Sweethearts on Parade" celebrated by some 200 dancers on stage of the Civic Centre yesterday displayed all the color and rhythm which has made Buddy Taft's annual dance review "a hit."

The afternoon performance, a full dress rehearsal of 57 numbers in 45 acts, while it ran three hours, provided "entertainment appeal" for young and old.

Artists from four to 19 took the spotlight in multi-colored sparkling taffeta, fluffy tulle and shimmering satin, to present fast stepping tempos to more graceful ballets, beneath a flood of vivid and effecting changing lights.

Under the guidance of their director Mr. Taft, a large number of artists showed outstanding promise of brilliant dancing futures in numbers "Highland Fling," "Candy Cane Kids," "Miss Sparklette," "Indian Ballet," "Grande Valse," "Mexican Hat Dance," "Swinging the Blues," "Piourette in Waltz Time" and a sensational toe tap "Toe Syncropation."

Keynote was rhythm personified from the opening number "Six Delicious Flavors" to the finale "Totem Tap" featuring Buddy and his Merry Makers.

Cuties of the show were babies of the school, in pastel-shaded ballerinas, featuring "An Old Fashioned Garden," while "Space Cadets" appealed to would-be boy air-space travellers.

A special number "Centennial" presenting 12 individual novelty acts, drew plaudits from the enthusiastic crowd of children and adults.

First United church plans anniversary events in June

First United church will combine its 50th anniversary with its contribution to Prince Rupert's Centennial celebrations by staging a series of special events on June 22 weekend.

Beginning on Saturday, June 21, with the Sunday School picnic at Kloiya Bay, the celebration will move into high gear Sunday, June 22, with special Anniversary Church services both morning and evening.

Guest speakers at these services will be C. F. Connor, the first Methodist minister in Prince Rupert and his wife, who will travel from Vancouver for the occasion. Mr. Connor came to Prince Rupert in July, 1908, to establish the first Methodist church in this city. During his stay here he was married to the present Mrs. Connor. During the latter part of his career Mr. Connor has been a teacher and still is an active substitute teacher in Vancouver.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Connor will speak about Prince Rupert as they knew it in 1908 to 1910.

An anniversary dinner in the church hall is planned for Monday evening, June 23, to bring the festivities to a close.

Committee in charge of anniversary arrangements consists of: K. F. Harding, chairman; Mrs. Erling Pedersen, Dr. L. M. Greene, William Dunn, Harold Thomas, and Rev. V. E. McEachern.
