UNVEIL SECRETS TOMORROW

Riotous Show Forecast By Rotarian Minstrels

Hush-hush rehearsals during the past few months have kept the black secret of what zany pranks the City's Rotarians are going to play on-stage in the Minstrel show this week.

The eight "end-men" who will clown in between—and perhaps even during — the 11 choral numbers, refuse to reveal what their routine will be. But the man responsible for their capers, Jack Deeth, promises just as many laughs as last year. He forecasts a harrassing time for "Mr. Interlocutor" Douglas Frizzell.

Musical director Charles P. Balagno has coached the 30-member mixed choir. The women will wear gay costumes of gingham skirts, cotton blouses, bandanas and colored stockings. Giant floppy bow ties will brighten the men's dark suits. Thick black grease-paint and curly black wigs will cloak them all in happy anonymity. Make-up will be supervised by the High School Drama group.

The show will go on at the Civic Centre, tomorrow, Friday an Saturday nights this week. Capacity audiences are expected —most of the 600 tickets for each performance have already been sold. Only a few remain. Proceeds of the show will be divided between the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society Clinic, the School for Retarded Children and other Rotary projects.

Lassies To Join Menfolk At Semi-Annual Burns Meet

A dinner, a "wee drap o' the Auld Kirk" and a generous sprinkling of tartan are just a few of the Gaelic ingredients planned for the semi-annual mixed gathering of Prince Rupert Burns Club at the Commodore cafe on Friday night.

President Frank Hicks will welcome the guests. After supper entertainments will include a demonstration of Highland dancing by Miss Darlene Cummine; a half-hour talk and slides by William Bissett; songs by Peter McKee, Margaret Carlson, Thomas Wardrope and Mrs. William Bissett; bagpipes by RCMP Sgt. J. W. Todd and accordion selections by Lorne Stevens.

CYO Plans "Bunny Hop" To Mark End of Lent

A "Bunny-Hop" will celebrate the end of the Lenten season, observed by the Catholic Youth Organization when the group stages an Easter dance in the Annunciation School auditorium, April 26.

Final plans for the social, to include a five-piece orchestra, were made Sunday night at a regular meeting held in the school auditorium.

Guest chaplain was Father Lawrence Turgeon of Terrace, who also preached at the CYO retreat held that day by 35 members.

During the business session, the Apostolic committee decided to collect Catholic papers and magazines to be sent to missions abroad.

New member Steve Comadina was introduced by vice-president Jeanette Cloutier.

President John LaPorte read a letter received from the Dandelion College in Calgary asking for CYO representation at the Banff Dandelion College convention in August. Two delegates and the CYO chaplain will attend the meet.

Nominations for the slate of new officers will take place at the next meeting, April 21.

A talent show, convened by the social committee was followed by games and dancing.

PTA Meeting Slated Tonight

A panel discussion on school problems will highlight the regular meeting of Booth Memorial High school Parent-Teacher association. The panel talks will be a continuation of those begun at last month's meeting. Also on the agenda will be discussion of resolutions to be presented at the PTA conference in Vancouver during the easter holidays. The meeting starts at 8 p.m.

Fund-Raising Fun Day Set May 15 by H & SA

"A Merry May Day" will receive top priority in the Annunciation Home and School association's forthcoming activities.

The decision to hold a fund-raising fun day in the school's auditorium on the afternoon and evening of May 15 was made at the group's regular meeting Tuesday night.

In other business the association discussed the possibility of instituting a soup program for the school children at the beginning of the next school term.

Harry Scholten reported that $1,500 has been saved by the school children in the Junior Savings Club since its inauguration last September.

A questionnaire will be sent parents of children who will make their first communion in May, asking their opinion on a group communion breakfast.

The association will support the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce's second annual teenage safe driving roadeo, to be held in Roosevelt Park, May 4.

President Mrs. Neil Galbraith played a recording of "Are Parents and Teachers Sociable" given by Father Matthew Meehan of St. Mary's Seminary, Brockville, Ontario, carried over CBC Sunday afternoon.

Refreshments concluded the session.

VAST ELECTORATE

India's 1957 general elections had 2,875,000 ballot boxes for an eligible voting list of about 193,000,000 persons.
