Spokane Tan Beavers

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (CP) —An International Allan Cup final is lined up as a result of Spokane Flyers' 4-2 win last night over Fort William Beavers.

It gave the American club their best-of-seven Western Canada senior hockey semi-final 4-2 with one game tied. They will meet either Whitby or North Bay for the cup.

The Beavers put up a stubborn battle before being eliminated. Twice they came from behind to tie the score, making it 1-1 at the end of the first period and 2-2 at the end of the second.

Then the Spokane club came up with the winner and an insurance marker in the third.

The Flyers' marksmen were Art Jones in the first period, William (Tic) Beattie in the second and John Zahara and Tom Hodges in the third.

Steve Black and Buck Forslund scored for Fort William.

Burly Beliveau Beats Bruins In Thrill-Packed Cup Classic

By W. R. WHEATLEY

MONTREAL (CP)—One of the tightest struggles ever waged in playoff hockey—a bitter checking game that moved to its climax in a welter of tense excitement—was tipped in Montreal Canadiens' favor over Boston Bruins last night by Jean Beliveau's goal.

It was the only goal of a defensive classic and came at 2:27 of the second period.

The 1-0 shut-out for lanky Jacques Plante gave the jubilant Montrealers a 2-0 lead in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup final.

The series now shifts to Bruins' home ice for the next two games—Thursday and Sunday.

LAST-MINUTE ATTACK

It wasn't until the last second ticked off that anyone in the shrieking crowd of 14,500 was sure the goal by Montreal's giant centre had won the game.

Bruins last-minute drive—with goalie Don Simmons on the sidelines in favor of another forward—was savage and relentless.

Canadiens fought back to protect the thin lead and overcame two faceoffs in the Montreal end as the Bruins bumped recklessly in a desperate effort to get the puck past Plante.

Beliveau's goal was a thriller all its own, the climax to a perfect forward pass by Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion.

The burly Boomer, taking a relay from defenceman Dollar St. Laurent just outside the Montreal blue line, carefully timed his long pass after crossing centre ice. The puck got through defencemen Bob Armstrong and Leo Boivin.

TOOK HIS TIME

The powerful Beliveau, his long legs picking up speed, whipped between the two defencemen, grabbed the puck and raced in on Simmons.

The goalie made the first move. That was all Beliveua needed. He finished off the play with a neat bit of stickhandling and sent the puck into the net just as Bruins forward Leo Labine came speeding up from behind.

The shutout was something of a shock to Bruins. The game was the 69th since they were last blanked—a 4-0 whitewash by Chicago Black Hawks last Oct. 30.

The Bruins stopped the formidable Rocket Richard, who ruined them Saturday with four goals.

Richard had two particularly good chances to score. He missed the net once and lost the puck another time just as he was ready to blast at Simmons.

Silversides Continues Great Run

Cliff Silversides of Thom Sheet Metal continued his top-form run in Mixed League bowling by taking men's high single and triple.

He got within four pins of Jack Sedgewick's record single with 333 and totalled 806 for the triple.

Bertha Dunbar conceded women's high single to Hi Greens' Elizabeth Madsen with 292 but grabbed triple honors for Pushovers with 715.

Pushovers rolled accurately for a creditable team triple of 3601.

In B league, Ann Raychuk of Shopeasy scored six better than Airliners' J. Waruk for individual honors.
