Road Superintendent C. J. Gillingham, accompanied by George Thomas, H. McLellan, G. Rutherford and C. T. Baker, is spotting out the proposed route of the Stewart-Groundhog pack trail. Messrs Baker and McLellan only went as far as the Naas

W. R. Smith, formerly in the electrical business here, has opened out for himself at Sidney, V. I., where he is doing well.

Charley Miller is spying out the land along the proposed route of the Stewart-Groundhog trail.

Owing to the majority of the local residents being out in the hills prospecting or working for the government, there was no attempt to celebrate Dominion Day.

THAT FATAL WRECK NEAR OTTAWA.

Two cars of the Canadian Pacific Railway immigrant special left the rails and rolled down the embankment into the Ottawa River, causing the death of eight persons, mostly Scotch immigrants bound for western points.

MONTANA GROUP TO START IN SHIPPING

Leasers are Meeting With Great Success in Their Development of the Property

It is destined that the Marmot river section of the district is shortly to come into its own as a producer of "high grade." It was near the headwaters of this creek that an English company secured a group of claims and the promotion prospectus gave rise to the lurid stories of fabulous wealth in 1910. However, those who are acquainted with the Marmot and have closely followed the prospecting and development that has been quietly going on since the boom days are still candid in their belief that it will become the producer of several rich silver-gold properties. A striking example of the camp is the Montana group, located about six miles back from the salt chuck. The group is owned by Bruggy and Magee and is under lease to Charley Knipple and Ben Lawrence. For some weeks past the leasers have been driving a tunnel following a vein of high grade galena and grey copper, and already their efforts have been fruitful in the sacking of three tons of rich ore. This consignment will shortly be sent to a southern smelter, and is expected to be the initial shipment that will place the property on a self-producing basis. The good news has lent encouragement to others to more thoroughly investigate the Marmot with a view to both leasing and bonding claims. A firm of well known Vancouver mining engineers will have a representative on the ground next week.

Indian Mines.—Some splendid samples of galena have been brought to town from the shoot recently encountered by the main tunnel. For the past 35 feet the ore being driven into is almost solid.

Red Reef.—The contractors, taking into consideration the exceptionally hard rock they have encountered ever since the contract was started, are making good progress in continuing the tunnel. The adit in crosscutting the mineralized zone has encountered several minor bodies of chalcopryite ore.

Nine Mile.—After working all winter, T. Pearson and Charles Petersen have struck a nice vein of galena, in a distance of 90 feet. At this point the vein shows a width of three to four feet with a paystreak of ten inches of solid ore.—Portland Canal Miner

NEW BOARD OF HEALTH.

H. B. Birch, chairman; George Bruggy and B. E. Badger are the members of the new health board. Pending receipt of instructions from the government agent the board is endeavoring to negotiate a new contract for the handling of garbage, etc.—Portland Canal Miner.

When Summer Stops the Swing

Most of us can remember the school lesson in the law of accumulated motion—momentum.

If you exert a pound of pressure against a man in a swing, you'll start him moving slowly "to and fro." If you continue to exert a pound of pressure against him every time the swing makes a trip, you'll soon have him going so high that he almost turns the whole circle. If you stop pushing, the momentum will die out and the swing come to rest at "dead centre."

Winning trade follows the same natural laws.

Advertisements are the force behind the swing of public favor. Each new advertisement increases the momentum. Finally, the accumulated force of these numerous impulses swings indifference to the buying point.

If you stop Advertising, you lose momentum.

The moral of which is:

Don't stop the business swing in Summer.

Keep adding the pounds of Advertising pressure.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
