Little League first place changes hands

Shop-Easy squeezed into first place in Prince Rupert Little League last night by nipping North Star 8-7 at Algoma Park.

The bitterly fought contest waged both ways until the bottom of the sixth inning, and when the smoke cleared, North Star had taken the lead 7-5. Here, with two men on base by virtue of walks, Brian Specht, the Shop-Easy pitcher, lined a double through second base, tying the score. Another walk was given up by the bottling crews' pitcher David Tompson, and relief pitcher Danny Postula took the mound. Shop-Easy batter Wayne Hill promptly stepped into Postulas' second pitch and banged out a double bringing in Specht, sufficient to win the game.

RECREATION FACILITIES at the Queen Alexandra Solarium in Victoria and the Vancouver Preventorium will be increased because of the Centennial Project of school students throughout the Province. More than $16,000 has been collected by school students in British Columbia and will be devoted to helping these two institutions. Trustees for the fund are Grant Clark of West Vancouver High School and Donna Ferguson of Magee High School, Vancouver, seen here with one of the youngsters at the Vancouver Preventorium who will benefit from their efforts.

BIRD IN THE HAND—A baby owl named Sally doesn't give a hoot for trees any more, now that it can roose in the palm of pretty Barbara Roberts, 18, in Austin, Texas. The wise young bird is content to be raised by Barbara, who adopted it after it had fallen from its nest.

SPECS APPEAL—The latest thing in glasses are these rectangular, fold-away spectacles, which must look nice on people with square heads. The glasses were designed by Lafontaine-Dauphin for the spring fashion season in Paris.

Soccer teams battle to tie

A thrilling Prince Rupert and District soccer league contest at Algoma Park last night saw two fast teams, Local 708 and Savoy finish in a 2-2 deadlock.

Savoy struck first on goals by Alex Renbacx and Tony Gruber and cling to their lead until late in the second half. Here centre forward Bob Patozdy banged in two goals tying the score.

On Saturday Aiyansh will take on the Savoy XI at 7:00 p.m. at Algoma Park, while Kitimat will play host to Local 708 at Kitimat.

Another $24.00 has been contributed to the benefit fund for injured soccer star Walter Brettameyer, bringing the total fund so far to $70.

Donations may still be sent to Louis Boltong at Miller's Cigar Store, 701 Second Ave. West.
