THIS NEW KNEELENGTH COAT in heavy British wool tweed is dramatically lined with green moire silk. The black and white pepper and salt fine tweed dress would look equally well by itself on a cool autumn day. Both are featured in the Matita of London autumn collection.

Co-hostesses At Fete For Mrs. D. J. Doswell

Miss Patricia Morrisey and Miss Hazel Tweed were hostesses at a farewell gathering Wednesday night when friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Rice on Eighth Avenue East to fete Mrs. D. J. Doswell.

A souvenir picture of Prince Rupert was presented the guest of honor by Miss Tweed, on behalf of the guests. Mrs. Doswell said that the gift will be a treasured memento of her years here. She leaves the middle of the month with her husband and children for Seattle, where they will live for a year before taking up residence in Sitka, Alaska.

Tea cup reading by Mrs. William Rothwell formed the evening's enjoyable entertainment. Refreshments concluded the delightful affair.

Others attending were Mrs. James Hyndman, Mrs. Robert Harmer, Mrs. Betty Ellison and Mrs. George Miller.

Shriners Honor Officers

The Prince Rupert Shrine Club held a farewell dinner party in the La Gondola Wednesday night when some 25 members gathered, to honor departing executive officers, Past President D. J. Doswell and vice-president Allan H. Dowsley.

President Jack Davis of Port Edward, on behalf of the club, presented the guests of honor with pen and pencil sets.

Both feted members leave the middle of the month with their families for the south. Mr. Doswell will take up residence in Seattle while Mr. Dowsley will make his home in Crofton where he will go on staff as a member of the engineering staff of B.C. Forest Products.

Attended Witnesses Assembly

A large number of Prince Rupert residents were among some 10,000 people who attended the recent five-day assembly of Jehovah Witnesses in Edmonton.

Heading the Prince Rupert delegation were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Melin and sons Robert and Kenneth, who returned to the city Tuesday.

Others taking part in the assembly were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Closter and children Douglas, Dianne and Barry; Mr. and Mrs. Ryder Havdale, Billy, Wanda and Julia; Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Humpherville, Keith and Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nilson, Larry and Eilleen; Miss Hilda Schmidt and Hansel Staglader.

The previous week saw a similar essembly in Seattle, with some city residents also in attendance.

The grand rallies were just two of a series of large assemblies in North America and other countries. The lecture theme was "Healing of the Nations Has Drawn Near."

Custody Sought

VANCOUVER (CP) — A student nurse is seeking custody of two nieces and a nephew orphaned last week when their Doukhobor mother, a memeber of the fanatical Sons of Freedom sect, committed suicide.

Hilda Gienger has legal application for the three children of Mrs. Mary Gienger on behalf of Miss Gienger's parents and brother, who have neighboring farms in the Rosedale area of the Fraser Valley. The application likely will be heard Aug. 23 at Nelson, B.C.

The application is opposed by Helen Antifaev of Penticton, B.C., whose elderly parents at present are caring for the children of Krestova where their widowed mother lived until her death July 24.

The eldest child, Patsy, 12 was a student at the government-operated New Denver, B.C., dormitory school until Mrs. Gienger's death. Police discounted a contention of Freedom leaders that the woman, who was found hanged in an outside toilet, was despondent about Patsy's absence.

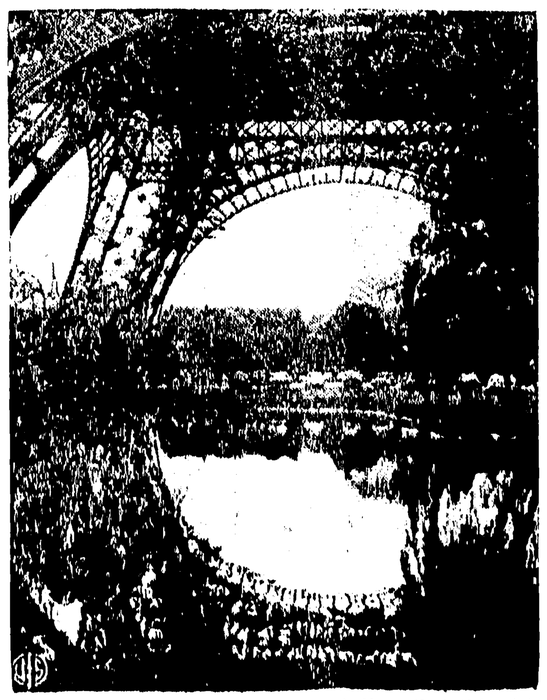
MORALE BOOSTER

SHERBROOKE, Que. (CP)—Mrs. Ellie Fortier recommends pipe-smoking as a morale booster. The 90-year-old woman is not concerned about the discussion of medical effects of smoking.

She says with a smile: "at my age, what has one to fear?"



PARIS PASTORALE — It is hard to believe that this picturesque oasis of peace and greenery lies at the foot of the Eiffel Tower in the heart of Paris. The great iron structure appears to be floating serenely in the pond below it.
