Rev. Lawrence MacLennan officiated at the baptismal ceremony.

For the occasion the tiny principal wore a white christening robe.

Godparents were the baby's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Desautels. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Thibeault of Victoria.

Following the service, the principal's parents entertained with a buffet supper at their home on 1206 Second Avenue West.

For their first born child's christening party, Mr. and Mrs. Desautels used the top layer of their three-tiered wedding cake.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China reports that since 1955 more than 1,380,000 people have migrated to Inner Mongolia and remote northeast and northwest provinces to speed economic development. Peiping Radio said their projects have brought enough wasteland into cultivation to produce 650,000 tons of grain annually.

DAUGHTER OF THE FAMED MORGAN FAMILY of Kitwanga, Camilla Pearl Martha, is pictured above with her father, Wallace Barnabas Morgan on her wedding day, Saturday afternoon. The formal wedding was a scene of beauty in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral, as an entourage of six bridesmaids and six groomsmen flanked the bride and her groom, Charles Max Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Charles Haines of Kincolith. The Very Rev. A. E. Hendy, Dean of Caledonia, officiated at the altar profused with white chrysanthemums and tapers. Pictured outside the Cathedral steps with the bride and her father are tiny attendants, bridesmaids with matron-of-honor Mrs. William Matthew Stewart, standing directly behind the bride. In multi-colored rainbow hues, the attendants' gowns enhanced the white taffeta and nylon gown worn by the bride. Groomsman was Mr. Stewart. A large reception followed. The beautiful principal was crowned "Miss Buckskin Gloves" of 1958 in Vancouver this Spring. She is a sister to Judith Morgan, famous artist in eastern Canada. —Staff photo.

PRIESTS ASSIST

Over 100 parishioners confirmed by Bishop

It was a momentous occasion for 94 boys and girls on the last afternoon of November, when they were confirmed by the Most Rev. Fergus O'Grady, Bishop of Prince Rupert, before the altar in the Church of the Annunciation.

Rev. Lawrence MacLennan preceded the procession of the children down the aisle to the altar profused with red and white carnations flanked by 24 white tapers.

Parish priest Rev. M. J. Morrin and Rev. James Tracey assisted Bishop O'Grady in the impressive ceremony, which was highlighted by an informative question period between the Bishop and the tiny principals.

On behalf of the boys' sponsors, Patrick Kelly, Annunciation Grade 5 and 6 teacher presided while Mrs. Henry Nuyten, Grade 3 and 4 teacher presided for the girls.

Following the confirmation of the children, 20 adults were then confirmed by Bishop O'Grady.

TO THE PEOPLE OF PRINCE RUPERT

I am again asking for the support of the electors of Prince Rupert because I believe that I can continue to be of service to the City of Prince Rupert.

My six years service on the City Council, during which time I have been Chairman of both the Finance Committee and the Utilities Committee has given me an insight into City affairs which well qualifies me to carry on with the important projects that are ahead of us and to insist that all civic legislation is fully considered before being passed.

I pledge my support to all good, progressive legislation that is within sensible economic limits and will not overburden us with unconsidered taxes. Taxes which are paid by all of us, whether as property holders or through the rents we pay.

I am proud that one of the projects which I initiated, the Timber Resources Survey by Forest Engineer Mark Gormely, has now resulted in the purchase of large timber limits by a lumber company who will shortly build a sawmill in Prince Rupert which will offer some 80 new jobs for our citizens.

I solicit your support on Election Day, December 11th, 1958.
