Nuptial mass unites Pr. Rupert residents

Nuptial mass was celebrated in the Church of the Annunciation Wednesday morning when Frances Goulding became the bride of Henry John Nuyten, before the altar adorned with floral arrangements and candlelight.

Rev. M. J. Morrin officiated at the wedding for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Goulding of Ireland and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Nuyten of Holland.

In attendance was Bishop Fergus O'Grady of Prince Rupert.

Given in marriage by G. P. Lyons, the bride exchanged her vows wearing a white heavy corded silk full-length gown. The short-sleeved fitted lace bodice, styled on princess lines, was accented by matching three-quarter length lace gloves. A headband of corded silk and seed pearls secured her shoulder-length veil and she carried a corsage of American Beauty roses. To complete her ensemble she wore a three-strand pearl necklace.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Brendon Holohan, as matron-of-honor, chose a blue nylon-over-white lace gown in ballerina length. The fitted bodice fell to a bouffant skirt and a matching tiara caught her tiny veil of blue. She carried pink carnations.

George Teurlings was best man. Organist was Mrs. Denis Rowse and soloist was Miss Joanne Van Deursen.

The bridal breakfast at the La Gondola Cafe was followed by an evening reception at the Canadian Legion.

Receiving some 75 guests Mrs. Lyons wore a floral silk gown with matching duster in brown tones, beige colored accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Abe Aleven received wearing a blue corded silk cocktail gown, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by silver candelabra. Father Morrin proposed the toast to the bride.

For travelling the bride chose to wear a moss-green light-weight summer wool suit and beige accessories.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in southern British Columbia, the newlyweds will make their home in Prince Rupert. Mr. Nuyten is employed by Rupert Motors and Mrs. Nuyten was a teacher at Annunciation school.
