SIX THOUSAND REBELS KILLED IN CHINESE BATTLE

MUTINY OF SWISS GUARDS AT VATICAN--TO PREVENT IMPORTATION OF ARMS BY MEXICO

FIGHTING IN MEXICO STILL GOING AT SAME OLD GAIT

UNITED STATES NOW CONSIDERING REPEAL OF NEUTRALITY LAWS AND A PROCLAMATION PROHIBITING THE IMPORTATION OF ARMS.

(Special to The Daily News)
Hermosillo, July 24.—The Constitutionalists of Sinaloa yesterday defeated a federal column at Hermosillo. The federal loss was thirty killed and a large number wounded. The battle took place on the line of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, twenty miles from San Blas.

Washington, July 24.—The repeal of the neutrality laws and the proclamation prohibiting the exportation of arms to Mexico is being considered by the administration here as the next step in the Mexican situation. A conference between Henry Lane Wilson, the ambassador to Mexico, who is now here, and the congressional leaders has been planned for today.

The discussion will include this proposal, to which many of the leaders have already given approval.

It is understood that the belief of the administration officials is that should the free exportation of arms be permitted to all factions in Mexico the present situation might adjust itself. The congressionalists claim that the lack of arms is the only bar to quick victory.

The repeal suggested is proposed on the ground that there is no recognized government in Mexico. When the prohibition was enacted a regularly constituted government, recognized by the United States, was in existence.

The administration will make no move in the Mexican situation and will reserve announcement of its future policy toward the Huerta government until after President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have had an opportunity to confer with Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson.

THOUSANDS OF JAPANESE FLOCK TO BRAZIL RICE PLANTATIONS

THE JAPANESE FIND OTHER OUTLETS FOR THEIR EMIGRATION

Tokyo, July 24.—Although the emigration of Japanese to the United States has been practically stopped by what is known as the "gentlemen's agreement," the exodus of emigrants to South America is increasing. One of the principal causes of this is the establishment of the Brazilian Colonization Company by Baron Shibusawa and other prominent Japanese families in Brazil for the leasing of lands in Brazil. An agreement with the Brazilian government provides for the settlement of 2000 Japanese families in Brazil for the next four years, and a start has been made in sending these people across the Pacific. It is likely that rice cultivation will be the chief occupation.

The majority of the Japanese emigrants are in Hawaii and the United States, with South America and Canada next. There are 600 Japanese workers in the rubber plantations in Malay peninsula. Already there are 8,000 Japanese laborers in Brazil engaged in the cultivation of coffee, about 4,000 in Peru in the cultivation of potatoes, 1,000 in Mexico in mining and 2,000 in Australia. Official figures place the number of Japanese in the Philippine Islands at 3,000, chiefly engaged in the production of flax and potatoes, while there are 500 employed in phosphorous mining in the Island of Guam, which belongs to the United States.

SPORT SOCIETY IS DOWN ON RAG DANCES

"Bunny Hug" is Considered Bad
—Old Time "Straight"
Dancing Returns

Prinsep, July 24.—From a variety of causes the so-called "rag" dances are quietly falling into disrepute among the smart set. They are being gradually abandoned in favor of the old time "straight" dancing. At the dances given here this season there has been a marked decrease among the young men, as well as those unmarried, to dance in a more decorous fashion than during the past season.

There have been no requests made by any of the hostesses to their guests asking them not to dance these dances but society has quietly considered the matter and the fiat will go forth shortly, it is said, that the one-time popular "bunny hug" type of dance in "bad form."

"BABY MINE" RAISED MANY HEARTY LAUGHS

Griffith Company at Westholme
Continues to Entertain its Audiences

"Baby Mine," the comedy presented by the Griffith Company at the Westholme theatre yesterday evening kept the audience in a state of continual merriment. It centres around the squabble arising between the uxorious but jealous Alonzo Hunt and his wife Lois, who is a veritable lady of lies. Lois has disappointed Alonzo in so many things that he finally resolves to leave her. When she finds herself abandoned she is willing to use any means to win him back. She therefore eagerly accepts the suggestion of her friend to adopt a baby and pretending that it is her own, use it as a decoy to draw her husband back to his home. Out of the complications that follow the fun begins.

There was a special feature last night which it is to be feared will not be repeated tonight. The light went out in the middle of the second act leaving the audience for some minutes in complete darkness, save for the illumination caused by match strikers. The Westholme Theatre was not the only place deprived of light, however, as in all that section of the city the same thing is reported to have happened. "Baby Mine" will be played again tonight. Tomorrow night the play will be "The Confessions of a Wife."

FIFTY LIVES LOST

Overall Factory at Binghampton
Destroyed by Fire.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Binghamton, N. Y., July 24.—At daybreak today a big force of city employees began to search the smouldering ruins of the Freeman overall factory, which was destroyed by fire yesterday. A conservative estimate puts the dead at fifty.

There are sixteen charred bodies unidentified. This is as far as the search has gone, but many lost their lives by falling and jumping from the building. Most of the inmates were girls. An inquiry will be held into the cause of the disaster and an endeavor made to fix the responsibility, if any, for the loss of life.

Fire Marshal Ahern declares that if the windows giving on the fire escape had been protected, as directed by Fire Inspector Kerrigan recently, the catastrophe might have been avoided.

MULTIMILLIONAIRE TEA KING IS VISITING PRINCE RUPERT

THE FAMOUS YACHTSMAN, SIR THOMAS LIPTON, THE BOSOM
FRIEND OF KING EDWARD, IS HERE AS GUEST OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Prince Rupert has had many prominent visitors of late, but none of greater importance than the famous yachtsman and bosom friend of the late King Edward, Sir Thomas Lipton. The business men of this city, the real estate brokers, the members of the Board of Trade, will be surprised to hear that Sir Thomas arrived in this city yesterday by the Prince George and has been here for almost thirty-six hours without his presence being known to them. Yet so it is.

Great men often like to escape the attention which their notoriety attracts and prefer to have occasional trips in quiet. Doubtless it was this way with Sir Thomas. Perhaps, on the other hand, he wanted to look over Prince Rupert's possibilities by himself that he might have a few calm moments to consider where he might best invest his money before listening to the siren voices of the real estate men.

Just to think, though, of the millionaire tea king being in town unspotted by real estate men! Of course they will all rush to him now that they have learned that he is here.

Where is he staying? At the Inn? No, not there. Where, then, at the Premier, the Royal, at which of the hotels, or is he staying with some friends here? Why, no. As the King's friend, it is only fitting that Sir Thomas should be lodged at the King's expense. He is in the police cells.

To explain how Sir Thomas comes to be lodged in the police cells it will be best to narrate from the beginning the story of his coming to Prince Rupert.

When the Prince George was preparing to leave Vancouver on Monday night, Steward Newey was examining the tickets of the passengers as they came aboard. One gentleman came who showed no ticket. When questioned by Mr. Newey he replied: "It's all right, my dear fellow. I'm a stockholder."

He was a man of very respectable appearance, but Mr. Newey looked at him doubtfully. "A stockholder?" queried the steward. "Who, may I ask?"

"Tsh, tsh," said the unknown gentleman with a lordly air. "It's quite all right, believe me, but," he added, "if you want to know my name, why, I am Sir Thomas Lipton."

While the steward was pausing to take another look at Sir Thomas, that gentleman walked aboard, and, as the steward was busy with other passengers, he was not asked again for his ticket until the next day. Then when he saw Mr. Newey approaching he walked toward him with outstretched hand, saying, "Why steward, good day. How are you?"

"That's all very well, sir," replied Mr. Newey, "but I should like to see your ticket."

"Oh, that's all right, sir," said

IF IT STARTS.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Pekin, July 24.—The government prefers to view the revolutionary movement in the south without alarm. VATICAN NOW IS IN A STATE OF SEIGE

Mutinous Swiss Guards Relieved of Their Cartridges and Gen-darmes Placed in Control.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, July 24.—Throughout yesterday the Vatican was in a veritable state of siege, the outcome of the mutiny of the Swiss Guards, and their memorial relating their grievances and setting forth the conditions upon which they would remain in service were flatly rejected. Three leaders were expelled, four left last night and twelve requested leave to depart to their homes in October. The Guards were relieved of all cartridges, the gendarmes placed in control and all exits closed to prevent any guard leaving for or communicating with the outside. The neighborhood is patrolled by a strong force of police.
