Grotto Picks on Jewellers To Boost Men's League Lead

There was no change in the trend of events Monday, the first night's bowling of the New Year for the Men's Five Pin Bowling League, as last year's leaders, Grotto Cigar Store rolled relentlessly on, this time choosing Cook's Jewellers as their victims.

The Grotto crew took three points from the fifth place Jewellers to increase their lead margin by seven points over second spot Howe and McNulty who lost ground when they split points with the up-and-coming Hills and Williams gang.

Thom Sheet Metal took over sole possession of third place by annexing three points from cellar-dwelling Philpott-Exitt.

Neat scores were rolled in 'A" division as Gordie Cameron of Hills and Williams captured high single game for the night with 326. Three other bowlers racked up scores over the 300 mark. They were Alf Hodgskinson of Philpott-Evitt, 312, teammate Tommy Sedgwick, 302, and Jim Intermela, 301.

High three of the evening was rolled by George Goodwin of Thom Sheet Metal with 738.

Lowly Philpott-Evitt bowled a team high single of 1129 while their opopsition, Thom Sheet Metal racked up 3076 to take team high three.

In "B" Division, team standings tightened up into a jam.

Almost forgotten Legion who have been reposing in the cellar all year, came to life and whitewashed leading Esso Fuel Service for four points. The gas boys find themselves, as a result, in a first place tie with Royal Fisheries who moved up by taking three points from Auxiliary Firemen.

Both Skeena Beverages and Babcock Fisheries took two points during the evening to remain in second place tie with 20 points.

Bill Yerema of Dusteaters chalked up high single game with 275 while Ron Campbell of Babcock Fisheries rolled high three of 622.
