Prairie Squad Hot Favorites After Third Win Over Royals

BRANDON (CP)—Brandon Regals today are hot favorites to face Quebec Aces for the Edinburgh Trophy. The hustling Prairie squad roared to a 3-0 series lead against New Westminster Royals in the Western Hockey League finals Tuesday night while Aces were winning the Quebec League finals.

Brandon could make a clean sweep of the Western finals Thursday night in the fourth game.

Tuesday night they scored three unanswered and held New Westminster to a lone third-period tally to beat Royals 3-1.

In the East, Quebec defeated Chicoutimi Sagueneens by the same score to win their best-of-seven series 4-2.

Brandon's scoring splurge came in the first seven minutes of the second period as Les Lilley, Ray Manson and Len Haley tallied.

Gord Sinclair, a recruit from Seattle Americans for the series, scored mid-way through the last period and robbed Lucien Dechene of a shutout.

Royals were bolstered by the return of veteran forward Ollie Dorohoy and regular netminder Bev Bentley.

DIZZY SPELLS

Dorohoy missed the second game while attending his father's funeral. Bentley, who was replaced by Victoria's Marcel Pelletier, missed the fist two games because of dizzy spells.

Doug Messier, an Edmonton junior, product, was dropped from the Royals defence squad with the return of Dorohoy. New Westminster, hit by injuries late in the season, played with three defencemen.

Lilley opened the scoring at 3:01 of the second, taking Don Raleigh's pass and firing a quick backhander past Bentley.

SHORT-HANDED

Two minutes later, with Royals short-handed, Manson made it 2-0 firing a shot which bounced into an open corner off defenceman Bob Bergeron's stick.

Haley completed the Brandon scoring, whistling in a passout from behind the New Westminster net.

Sinclair broke Dechene's shutout. His blueline drive was blocked by Dechene but it got away and trickled between the goalie's legs.

Both netminders were spectacular, Bentley turning aside 36 Brandon shots while Dechene made 33 saves.

Rough Play Spoils Fast Game

Rough play was again the dominant feature of a junior floor hockey game in which Thunderbirds beat Rockets 12-7 at the Civic Centre last night.

The other half of a doubleheader saw Roughnecks win by default over Red Wings, who failed to put out a side.

Referees Ernie Novakowski and Bud Hallock handed out six penalties for pushing and charging. Some of the offences looked entirely unnecessary.

PROMISING PLAYER

Rockets captain F. Charytoniuk was worst offender with four two-minute penalties marked against him. Although he is a promising player, Charytoniuk seems to have much to learn about restraint.

At present, he and one of two others are likely to get suspended unless they stop employing such needlessly rough tactics.

Top scorers for the winners were Judd Anderson and Joe Arsonal with three goals each. Jack Anderson and P. Decker got two each, Bill Mussell and H. Dorius completing the scoring. Ken Specht and G. Parkins also helped in a good victory.

Rockets' Jim Arsonal was top scorer of the evening, blasting four goals to go with two from E. Johanson and one from Charytoniuk.

At 8 p.m. tonight Huskies meet Team No. 3 in a senior game—also at the Civic Centre.

Seals Reduce Mounties' PCL Lead to One Game

By The Canadian Press

Harry Dorish pitched his third straight victory Tuesday night as the San Francisco Seals beat Vancouver 3-1 and narrowed the Mounties' Pacific Coast League lead to one game.

Dorish, whose 1956 record was two games lost and no wins with Boston and Baltimore, struck out six and allowed seven hits in pitching his third complete game for San Francisco.

George Bamber, who had allowed only six hits, was relieved by Dick Marlowe. Kal Segrist's error on Ken Aspromonte's potential double play ball to third allowed Hatton in with the final run.

The Mounties collected their single run in the sixth on Aspromonte's wide throw to first on Marshall's bouncer. Segrist doubled Marshall to third and Marshall scored on Joe Frazier's sacrifice fly.

In other games, Hollywood squeezed past Portland 4-3; Seattle edged San Diego 3-2 and Sacramento outran Los Angeles 7-2.

Tried Fishin' With a Worm-Rouser And a Lovesick Bluegill Caller?

NEW YORK (AP) — Two new gadgets for the average fisherman offer him a helping hand from the science of electronics —and the average fisherman can use some help.

Neither of the devices is designed to dazzle the fancy of the dry fly purist. The first, in fact, might be enough to make a man raised on imago patterns faint dead away.

It's an electric worm rouser, and it may be welcomed by those who have forgotten — or hope they have—what a shovel is for.

Item number two is even more shocking. It's a fish caller.

That may not sound like much but as a matter of record, the fish-calling division of the hall of fame has been singularly free of candidates since no experts in simulating the call of a lovesick bluegill have shown up.

FISH SWARM IN

The fish-caller doesn't, either. Just what it does simulate is not clear.

Frank Birch, Milwaukee advertising agency executive who worked it out, says it sounds like an insect hatch in full operation.

And it does—to people. But it works, spectacularly, even on aquarium fish.

The caller is a small watertight plastic gadget with a high frequency buzzer inside. It works on a single flashlight battery. You start the thing buzzing, drop it in the water and pretty soon all the fish in the neighborhood are hovering around.

The fish caller doesn't catch fish. This is where the bag produced from the front lawn by the electric worm rouser comes into action.

JUST PLUG IN

The rouser, by the way, has a couple of rods that you put into the ground, then plug into the nearest house power outlet.

However, the mechanical age still has more work ahead, even in the field of fishing.

For instance, before the angler can catch the electronically summoned fish with the electrically roused worm, he has to bait the hook himself.

Woman Golfer Moving West

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Top-ranked golfer Mary Gay says she will leave Saturday to live in Western Canada because she desires "a change of scenery."

"My first stop will be Calgary," Miss Gay said Tuesday. "I may move on to Vancouver from there but I haven't decided definitely yet."

Mary's top performances have not been limited to golf. She was a member of the Kitchener-Waterloo Elliots basketball team beaten recently by Vancouver Ellers for the Canadian senior women's title.
