ANSWER TO PANAMA NOTE IS AWAITED WITH MUCH ANXIETY

VITAL INTEREST IS FELT BY DOMINION GOVERNMENT AND CANADIAN SHIPPING INTERESTS IN ACTION OF UNITED STATES.

Ottawa, July 26.—The Dominion government and the shipping interests of Canada are awaiting with considerable anxiety the action of the United States in reply to Sir Edward Grey's last protest in granting free tolls to American vessels passing through the Panama Canal.

discuss in the United States and congress. It is now being realized, it is believed, that the granting of free tolls to American vessels would tend to strengthen only what is alleged to be a gigantic shipping monopoly in the United States, and under the present economic political policy of the Democratic party such a plan as free tolls would necessarily be not likely to find much favor.

SO WE ARE INFORMED.

You may bank with one concern Till they've nothing more to learn Of your income and the story of your life; You may pay your bills on time, And may owe no man a dime, And your credit may resemble Caesar's wife;

The president looks solemn As the day's financial column, And his manner is indifferent or cold; Have perhaps misunderstood, And thought you wanted fifty thou in gold.

DOINGS AT STEWART

Supt. Lloyd C. White, of the Portland Canal Tunnels Ltd., has returned to camp after spending a month's vacation with Mrs. White at Spokane. Mr. White is receiving congratulations on his being father of a handsome baby girl.

Nothing to have but what we've got— Thus through life we're cursed. Employer (to his clerk)—Is it true that when the clock strikes 6 you put down your pen and go, even if you are in the middle of a word?

Baron A. De Bernis, of Prince Rupert, accompanied by the baroness were visitors to Stewart on the last boat. The baron is heavily interested in Prince Rupert real estate, and is making himself familiar with the towns adjacent to the coming northern metropolis.

W. Myerstein, representing the firm of Gray & Milligan Bros., surveyors of Victoria, arrived here this week with a party of ten men to survey the land holdings of Gordon Runkle and Boston associates in the Naas valley. G. Davis, who was with the firm last season, is over in the valley in charge of the commissary department.

Mrs. Lougheed and Miss Selkirk of Vancouver are here for a six weeks' visit with their sister, Mrs. T. W. Falconer,—Portland Canal Miner.

THE SADDEST TALE OF ALL.

A HONEYMOON THAT IS TO LAST FOR SEVEN YEARS

Rev. Percy Howard and his bride of three weeks, who formerly was Miss Ethel Blanche Le Ber of Toronto. They left Montreal on the Nascobie and do not expect to return to civilization for seven years. Their headquarters will be at Rupert's House, James Bay.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE. ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. NOT a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. THE primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. IT was Sheffield's expression of respect. BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. THIS extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency. SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. YOU know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. DO you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? DO you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall? DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER. Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
