AT CATHEDRAL

Smeltertown visitors assist at christening

Three Kitimat residents attended the six-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McIntyre as godparents Sunday afternoon when the tiny boy was christened David Eric in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral.

Officiating at the baptism was the Very Rev. A. E. Hendy, Dean of Caledonia.

Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen and Kenneth DesJardin.

The principal is a brother to Michael, 6 and Gayle, 5. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. William Flewin and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. E. Faure, all of this city.

A family tea followed at the home of the baby's parents, on 245 Seventh Avenue West.

HALLOWE'EN SETTING

Humorous costumes liven Moose party

Two devils, a prospector, a maharajah and two bathing beauties were chosen prize winners Friday night when more than 100 costumed members of the Moose gathered in the Moose Temple to celebrate Mooseheart Day.

In a hallowe'en decor, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Vaselenek, garbed as devils, received first prize. Mrs. William Pilfold, as a prospector and Thomas Gagliardi as a maharajah, were winners in the most original group while Mrs. George Shenton and Douglas Standring, as bathing beauties, were winners of the most comical costumes.

Also providing fun and laughter was a hula hoop exhibition, followed by a cold plate buffet luncheon.

Music was provided by Mrs. Thomas Thomas and George Robinson.

Committee was composed of Mrs. William Walsh, Mrs. Michael Karasosky and Mrs. Mae Bond.

John Laurie, zone commander of northern area for the Canadian Legion, leaves tomorrow by CPA plane for a three-day visit on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

William Elder, 741 Third Avenue West, leaves tomorrow by plane to spend two-months in Vancouver.
