In 1950 Capt. Terry bought Mr. Clark out and formed Northland Navigation Company Limited, which he now controls.

Northland Navigation has three ships a week bringing passengers and freight into Prince Rupert, the Alaska Prince, the Northern Prince and the Canadian Prince.

The Canadian Prince was known on the B.C. Coast for many years as the Princess Norah and was purchased by Northland Navigation from Canadian Pacific Steamship Service last August. The next month saw the first Northland passenger service inaugurated.
