Mrs. H. Weldon Steel Feted Before Departure

A full round of social engagements has been on the agenda the past two weeks for popular city community worker Mrs. H. Weldon Steel who leaves tonight for Prince George to join her husband. Mr. Steel left for Prince George last week to take up his new appointment as manager for the Bank of Montreal there.

On the eve of Mr. Steel's departure June 6, Mr. and Mrs. Steel were guests of honor at a cocktail party by hosts Mr. and Mrs. P. F. P. Bird.

At farewell gatherings Mrs. Steel received a souvenir spoon from the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Cambral Chapter of which she was secretary and Monday afternoon she received a souvenir spoon at a tea held by the Prince Rupert General Hospital Women's auxiliary of which she was vice-president.

Other social affairs included a sherry party at the home of hostess Mrs. Richard Ayres, a dinner party at the Broadway cafe with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hughes as hosts followed by a coffee party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ham, a cocktail party at the home of Mrs. T. Norton Youngs and a dinner party at Club 27 with Mrs. George Cook and Mrs. L. C. Griffiths as joint-hostesses.

Last night Mrs. Steel was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vance.

Besides her executive positions in the IODE and Hospital auxiliary, Mrs. Steel has been an active member of the Women's Curling club, the Prince Rupert Co-ordinating council and the Prince Rupert Reading club.

Mrs. Steel said today that her greatest reward in community life here has been her work with the Retarded Children's School where she assisted school director Mrs. Basil S. Prockter since September during the first year of the school's operation.

TWO OF THE SUPPLE fabrics being widely used to interpret the new softened silhouette for fall are combined in a trend-setting style shown today at the Montreal Fall Fashion Forum. Matching chiffon swathes the waistline of a slim crepe dress and falls in fluid side panels. The dress by Glickman was one used to illustrate the newest trends to buyers.

"Tender Trap" Hit With First-Nighters

By MEINHART LAGIES

A good script alone doesn't make a play. Neither do acting, directing, stage settings, nor costumes.

But when all these factors are combined, as in Prince Rupert Little Theatre's production of "The Tender Trap," then you will see a performance that deserves far more than the 100 spectators that turned up at the Civic Centre last night.

Producer-director Leon Mendoza really hit the jackpot, if not financially, then certainly artistically.

Sparked by the brilliant performance of leading man Bill Evans, the group of eight actors and actresses carried the show at a fast pace through a firework of gags and bizarre situations with the ease of pros and the individuality of amateurs.

Perfectly cast: Bill Evans as Charlie the debonaire, temperamental and thriftless, seeking a way out of his self-spun, intricate net of friendships and engagements.

One girl setting a net for the lovable fish is Julie Gillis (Georgi Evans), equipped with an attractive appearance and a 55-year plan that includes Charlie.

All the wisdom and foolishness, the foresight and desperation of 33 years as a spinster, is expressed amazingly and flawlessly by teen-aged Shannon Pallant as Sylvia Crewes another Charlie Reader addict.

Leon Mendoza's portrayal of Joe McCall, battle-scarred veteran of 11 years of marriage, is so credible that one starts wondering about Mr. Mendoza's marital status.

Cathy Roos, playing Popple Matson, is so glamorous and attentive at the same time, you'd like to be in Charlie's place. Well, it's just a play.

Vivacious Jessica Collins (Valerie Dearden) produces an original wedding present—a cheese.

Ray Logie as the jealous scientist and Earl Lindquist and Gordie Nichols as the drunken musician Sol Schwartz draw more than their share of laughs with their commendable performances.

And special praise for perfect timing goes to Amelia Slutchpump, the girl who kept the telephone and doorbell ringing.

Our advice—don't pass up your last chance to see "The Tender Trap" tomorrow night.

SS CHILCOTIN HERE TONIGHT

Union Steamship S.S. Chilcotin will arrive in Prince Rupert at 9 o'clock tonight on her southbound voyage as part of the new Alaskan cruises slated this summer. It was reported mistakenly yesterday she would arrive last night. The Chilcotin left Vancouver last Friday and was in Prince Rupert Sunday on.

Swimming Pool, Parks To Be Open on Saturday

Gyro swimming pool and playgrounds at McClymont Park will open Saturday for a three-month period, Parks Board Supervisor Gordon McCutcheon said today.

Life guard Bev Comer will conduct a swimming class, starting July 4. On busy days she will be assisted by Georgi Evans, who will also supervise the playgrounds along with Shannon Pallant and Phyllis Bowman.

On Wednesday afternoons Bill Kincaid will hold water safety classes.

Casey Park will be supervised between 10 and 12 in the morning by Shannon Pallant.

Personally Speaking

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, 435 Fourth Avenue West leaves tomorrow morning by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane via Terrace for Vancouver en route to Portland, Oregon where she will join Dr. Wilson. They will spend a ten-day vacation before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davie, 625 Taylor Street, leave tonight on the Union Steamship Camosun for a five-week holiday in Vancouver and southern points.

Telkwa Man, Bride, Visit City Briefly

Former resident RCMP Constable Victor Irving and his bride were recent visitors in the city when they passed through Prince Rupert on their honeymoon to Skagway, Alaska.

The newlyweds boarded the S.S. Prince George here after motoring 2,000 miles through Alberta, the State of Washington and British Columbia following their formal wedding ceremony at St. Joseph's Cathedral, Edmonton, Alberta.

Constable Irving is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Irving of Telkwa, B.C. and the bride is the daughter of Oscar Tremblay and the late Eva Tremblay of Lac La Biche, Alberta.

The bridal couple will make their home in Edmonton where the groom is stationed.

Cooking School Scheduled

City women who can't cook may learn how and even the best of cooks will be able to gain a few extra ideas next week when Alice Wood, internationally-known home economist and food expert holds five sessions for a big free "Cooking School" being held in the Civic Centre.

Alice Wood will hold the classes during afternoons Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and an evening class Wednesday.

While the female population increases its culinary knowledge 15 bags of groceries will be given away daily by sponsors Shop-Easy Stores Ltd., and a large electric range will be given as the grand prize.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS
—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, June 13th — A bargain is a bargain . . . only when you have the cash to take advantage of it. That's why I so often urge my friends to follow the practice I began years ago and open a "special-purpose" account at the nearest branch of the BANK OF MONTREAL. Be sure to make regular deposits and you'll be delighted as you watch your savings grow. Then, when some attractive bargain presents itself, you're there with the ready cash to take advantage of it. It might be a sale on living-room drapes, a late-summer clearance of dresses or a week-end trip at bargain rates. Wonderful "buys" are always presenting themselves, and money in the bank can make the difference between wishing and having. So why not drop into your nearest B of M branch today and open your "special-purpose" fund? You'll find it can be your passport to better living.

CALLING ALL CINDERELLAS . . . Remember the way Cinderella's fairy godmother turned a pumpkin into a magnificent coach . . . with the flick of a magic wand? How would you like to do just that with some of the tiresome old rooms in your house. Sounds like a fairy tale, but it's really quite possible. I've just written a book for the CANADIAN INSTITUTE OF PLUMBING AND HEATING. Tells you how you can work magic with outmoded kitchens and old-fashioned bathrooms. Shows you in colorful illustrations how these old rooms can look with a little ingenuity and less cost than you might think. And this wonderful book is absolutely FREE! It's called "ROOMS I'D LIKE TO LIVE WITH". Send your name and address to me for your FREE COPY, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal.

THESE SUMMERY DAYS . . . can mean less work indoors for the bright and cheery housewife who loves to get out o'doors! . . . That's why at this time, particularly, I suggest delectable ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS . . . for you can whip them up in a breath of time! Do try some of the seven flavors this very week — and see for yourself how creamy smooth they are! Because all Royal Instant Puddings are super-homogenized, there's never a lump nor a film on top, and never a glimpse of that starchy taste. Use them as puddings and as pie fillings — your family will enjoy them all. And try adding some of the seasonal fresh fruits to them for still more enjoyment. Royal Instant Puddings are so good!

VETERINARIANS AGREE . . . the most important factor for a dog's health and happiness is a complete, nutritionally balanced diet every day. Hit and miss feeding actually shortens the life of your dog, makes him sluggish, dulls his coat. So, if you love your dog, as I'm sure you do, give him the proper balanced diet that only DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD can provide to keep him healthy, happy and playful with a lustrous coat as soft as silk. Remember, regular daily feedings of Dr. Ballard's will ensure your dog of a healthier, happier, fuller life. So, next time you shop, for your pet, better get Dr. Ballard's Champion Dog Food . . . Regular, Chicken and Liver flavours.

WHAT IS SO RARE? No . . . I'm not thinking of a day in June, but of a really good cup of coffee! Best way to make it a regular treat in your house is to always use INSTANT CHASE & SANBORN. When you buy it, look through the window in the jar and see the rich coffee color that means real coffee flavor. When you make it, you'll enjoy the full-bodied 100% coffee flavor, as increasing thousands of Canadians are doing this very day! Back of Instant Chase & Sanborn's perfection, lies nearly 100 years of coffee experience. It should be good and it is extra good! I've just finished a cup — and it was delicious! Do order a jar this week, you'll love it.

FABULOUS IS REALLY THE BEST WAY to describe this delectable casserole. Do try it — made with LIPTON CHICKEN NOODLE SOUP and asparagus, broccoli, or spinach.

Chicken and Asparagus Casserole

1½ cups cooked chicken, fresh or canned.
1½ lbs. fresh asparagus or 1 pkg. frozen—cooked tender.
1 package Lipton Chicken Noodle Soup—cooked in 3 cups boiling water, 7 minutes.
4 tbsps. butter
4 tbsps. flour
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
5 tbsps. grated parmesan cheese

To make sauce: Melt butter; add flour and blend well. Stir in broth strained from soup. Simmer 5 mins. Remove from heat and fold in whipped cream. Add 4 tbsps. cheese to one half the sauce. Arrange in layers in casserole — noodles (strained from soup); asparagus; half sauce; chicken; cheese sauce. Heat in moderate oven 30 mins. Sprinkle 1 tbsp. cheese on top and brown under broiler. Serves 4.
