Guides and Brownies

By ERNA MILNES

1st Brownie Pack: Last Saturday the 1st Brownie Pack and the 1st Guide Company held a Bake Sale, which was a great success, realizing $40. The Brownies and Guides all worked together on this project.

2nd and 4th Brownie Packs: A week ago Saturday these two Packs joined together for a picnic. Twenty-seven Brownies and their leaders went for a hike along the highway. They stopped and had weiners and buns, marshmallows, and a wonderful time.

3rd Brownie Pack: The 3rd is still working hard on their Golden Bar and Golden Hand tests.

5th Brownie Pack: Yesterday the 5th had a Mother and Daughter Banquet as their last meeting of the season. Arlene Baker, Geraldine Panter and Brenda Michaud received their Golden Bars. All the Brownies took part in a game and several Brownies recited.

1st Guide Company: This week the Guides practiced their square lashing, ready to make camp gadgets when they have their "Day in Camp" this Saturday. The Guides enjoyed working for the Bake Sale.

2nd Guide Company: Last Sunday the 2nd had a group meeting and then went to the Salt Lakes where the Guides enjoyed swimming and a picnic. Pattie Lewis and Sharon Allenson passed their fire lighting and cooking a meal over a camp fire tests. Altogether there were eight Guides, two friends and Capt. Mrs. Arvid Maki. They had a good time collecting nature treasures and everyone agreed it was most enjoyable.

Until next week, Happy Guiding!
