OPENING DANCE OF ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

Their New Hall in the Kaien Island Club Was Very Much Enjoyed.

The entertainments given by the St. Andrew's Society have always been classed among the most enjoyable of functions, the members being so charming as entertainers, but last night's affair was the best of them all because they had a fitting place to give it in. The former gym of the Kaien Island Club makes a splendid hall for dancing. Last night it was beautifully decorated for the opening occasion and the floor was perfect.

The entertainment opened with a whist drive, in which the prizes were won by Miss Mackenzie and Mr. Garton. Following this came the dainty supper and then dancing to the music of Gray's orchestra. From ninety to one hundred couples participated, the opening march starting a little before 11 and the last strathspey being reeled off a little after 2 this morning. It was a most enjoyable affair throughout and the new quarters of the society were much admired.

ATTENDING MEETING IMPERIAL DEFENCE

Three Members of the Canadian Cabinet to Tell Why Borden's Bill Failed.

London, Aug. 6.—Hon. Martin and Hon. W. T. White, minister Burrell, minister of agriculture, of finance, were the Canadian ministers in attendance at the meeting of the Imperial Defence Committee, over which Premier Asquith is presiding, here. Sittings will continue throughout the week.

KNOCKED INTO HOLD

Worker on Wharf Is Hurt by Swinging Bucket.

Frank Ivanich, a worker in the employment of the Atlin Construction Company, was the victim of a nasty accident yesterday. While on the wharf unloading coal from a vessel there a coal bucket swung against him, knocking him off the wharf into the hold of the ship. He was badly shaken up and his leg was fractured. He is at present in the geperal hospital.

"MAN FROM KOKOMO" IS SCREAMING FARCE

Good Fun Made by Griffith Company at Westholme Theatre Last Night.

"The Man From Kokomo" is certainly what it is cracked up to be—a screaming farce. S. M. Griffith as John Davis, the man from Kokomo, is a great laugh raiser. John Davis, a henpecked husband, is the victim of the constant suspicious of his wife. Nevertheless, when he gets to Chicago he decides to see a thing or two. He is promptly ensnared by a pretty actress who tries to make him feel younger by reducing the size of his pocketbook.

As an offset to the man from Kokomo and his suspicious wife, there is another pair, Mr. Stone, a jealous husband, and his wife. A little color is imparted to the whole play by Daniel Webster White and it is further decorated by Buttons. The eternal love interest is, of course, supplied in full measure.

The Griffith Stock Company will present "The Man From Kokomo" for a second time at the Westholme Theatre this evening. Tomorrow and Saturday evening the play will be "Bought and Paid For."

ARTISTS WILL PAINT CRESTS OF HAIDAS

Miss Carr of Victoria Is in the Islands at Present for That Purpose.

There arrived from Victoria on Tuesday, at Skidegate, Miss Carr, a noted lecturer and artist, who will journey this month to the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands, there to transfer to canvas the scenes existing in the days when totem poles were resplendent in paint, and the Indian inhabitants all powerful.

This lady lectured some two months ago in Vancouver, and the exhibition of 200 British Columbia paintings, portraying Indian life, totem poles and council houses, drew marked attention. Not a small portion of the collection has been secured after travelling thousands of miles, for it is off the beaten path that it is possible to procure the subject matter.—Queen Charlotte News.

CUTS CHILDREN'S THROATS

Insane Mother Commits Fearful Crime.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 4.—Mary Brogan, 9 years old, the third victim of a crazed mother's knife, died today. The physicians knew there was no hope for the little girl, whose throat had been slashed in a terrible manner, and the wonder was that she had lived since Saturday night, when her mother, Mrs. John J. Brogan, cut the throats of three of her six children and killed herself.

One of the children, Thomas, 3 years old, died almost immediately, and the other two, Victor and Mary, were removed to the hospital. Victor died yesterday. Mrs. Brogan attempted to kill her 12-year-old son, Joseph, but he evaded her and locked himself in a room.

Mrs. Brogan became insane as the result of worry over the condition of her eldest son, John, who is ill of typhoid fever.

SKETCH OF PRINCE ARTHUR AND THE DUCHESS OF FIFE

bencher of Gray's Inn, a freeman of the Haberdashers' Company, and a member of a score of foreign orders.

The Duchess of Fife, better known as Princess Alexandra of Fife, and formerly Lady Alexandra Duff, was born on May 17, 1891. She is the elder daughter of the late Duke of Fife and the Princess Royal (Princess Louise), King Edward's eldest daughter.

On the death of her father, the sixth Earl and the first Duke of Fife, in January last year, Princess Alexandra succeeded him as Duchess of Fife in her own right, by the special remainder contained in letters patent of 1900. She has no brothers, and her only sister (Princess Maud) is her heir.

She is the owner of some 250,000 acres and mistress of the great house of Braemer and Banff, Scotland. Like her mother, the young princess has always been of a retiring disposition, and her happiest days have been spent in outdoor sports at Mar Lodge rather than in London society.

At the time of his marriage with Princess Louise in 1889 her father was only an earl, being afterward created first Duke of Fife, while his daughters were raised to the rank of princesses in 1905, thus bringing them within the provisions of the Royal Marriage Act. At the same time King Edward conferred on their mother the title of Princess Royal.

AFTER TWO DIVORCES

Lady Randolph Churchill Is Quite Cheerful Over Future.

London, Aug. 4.—Lady Randolph Churchill, who has resumed her old name and title since her divorce from her second husband, Mr. George Cornwallis West, is bearing her matrimonial troubles bravely and with a fortitude which does not surprise her friends, who, however, are aware she feels deeply the humiliation and the misery of it all. "If a man wants to go, by all means let him go," is her motto.

There are more amusing stories told of Lady Randolph than of any woman in society and she enjoys recording a joke against herself more than anything else.

A LIVELY RUMPUS AT THE AUSTRIAN HOTEL

Gentlemen with Unpronounceable Names Engage in Spirited Mix-Up.

There was a merry row at the Austrien Hotel last night which alarmed all the inhabitants of the neighborhood. Paul Shawchuk, Mike Inbek and Mike Malco were the heroes of the evening who engaged in a gladitorial combat. The strife was Homeric in its character, the principals using whatever gigantic weapons came to hand. Shawchuk and Inbec, as the story runs, combined for the overthrow of Malco. One grasped a chair and, swinging it above his head, banged it down on the unfortunate Malco, bringing him to the floor. The other, not to be outdone, showed his martial prowess by seizing a beer barrel and trundling it over the vanquished hero.

But Malco may yet have his revenge. The case was brought up at a special session of the police court yesterday evening and was adjourned until Friday morning.

FLED FROM MEXICO TO SAVE HIS LIFE

Brother of One of Prince Rupert's Citizens Has Trying Time in the South.

W. S. Fisher, manager of the land office here of C. D. Rand, has received news from his brother that he has been obliged to flee from Mexico to San Antonio, leaving all his effects behind him. Mr. Fisher's brother was a medical man, working in connection with the Durango Railway. He took a good deal of money with him into Mexica and was doing well there when the present revolutionary troubles forced him to flee from that country in order to save his life. He is now, after his trying experiences, lying in the hospital at San Antonio, Texas.
