President of society unable to come here

Dr. Carl Reich, president, and Arthur Thompson, vice president were unable to come with the 20 members of the Prince Rupert Society, according to Roth G. Gordon, director of the Prince Rupert Society, who arrived by car from Vancouver Wednesday afternoon with wife and daughter Barbara, who is named after pioneer resident Mrs. A. R. Gordon.

Alexander Robert Gordon, father of R. G. Gordon, came to Prince Rupert in 1908 and lived in Knoxville. He operated the Cariboo Hotel which was opened by Lambert and Fraser on May 25, 1908. After working on the Grand Trunk Pacific and the CNR until 1936 when he retired, he died in 1937 and was buried in Fairview cemetery.

He had two sons, Roth G. and Lee M. both of whom were educated in Prince Rupert. Lee Gordon with Gunnard Anderson were the original proprietors of the Kordon & Anderson store. Lee Gordon sold out in 1950 and went to Jamaica. Later he moved to Los Angeles and is now a zone manager for an investment busines.

Roth G. started school in the first school and went to high school in the old Borden Street school, when the top floor was a high school. The principal there at that time was James Brady. Roth later was moved to the King Edward High school and while there originated the Aurora, still the high school annual.

After working for a year in the Royal Bank of Canada, he left to attend the senior matriculation class at King Edward school.

Still later he returned to teach at the school where he had taken his own senior matriculation.

Mr. Gordon left Prince Rupert in 1936, for Vancouver where he taught for 22 years. He left the teaching profession to go into the life insurance business and is now head of Gordon Agencies in Vancouver.

Billy Graham Film representative will arrive in Prince Rupert on Monday to show two Billy Graham films, entitled "The Miracle of Manhattan" and "The Heart is a Rebel," it was reported today by Senior Captain T. . Smith of the Salvation Army.

Under the auspices of the local Ministerial Association, these films will be shown in The Salvation Army Hall on Grenville court on Monday and Tuesday at 8:00 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Cocktail lounge, dining room opened by hotel to public

Cocktail lounge, dining and lobby facilities at the Prince Rupert Hotel were opened to the public today, H. F. Bonser, owner-manager, reports.

Part of a projected $50,000 renovation plan, the new facilities are as up to date as any in the northwest, Mr. Bonser said. The renovations are scaled to improve conveniences for travellers and city residents alike.

Wedding anniversary marked at re-union

Reflections of a wedding ceremony performed here 40 years ago were mirrored Tuesday night when a surprise family re-union celebrated the anniversary of former city residents Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Love of Vancouver.

Mr. Love, the first city telephone superintendent, and Mrs. Love were married July 29, 1918 in the First Baptist Church. Rev. W. W. Wright was the officiating clergyman.

Arriving Sunday, the couple enjoyed a family re-union and celebrated their anniversary at the home of their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Delorme, Leeds Apartments.

The offerings of congratulations were highlighted by the presentation of a movie projector and screen, presented by the couple's eldest son Bruce Love of this city while their only daughter Pat, Mrs. Rey Judd of Terrace presented her mother with a corsage.

Attending the affair were the guests-of-honor's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Love, Victoria; their son Eric from Prince George; son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rey Judd, Terrace; son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Love and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Love, all of Prince Rupert.

Other relatives in attendance were Mr. Love's brother, Harry Love and his wife of this city, Mrs. Love's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Owens, Prince Rupert; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Owens of Terrace and Mrs. Norman Nye of this city. Long-time friend Mrs. Hugh Killim of Prince Rupert was also present.

While here for a six-week holiday, the Vancouver visitors are the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Delorme.
