AFTERNOON AFFAIR

Christening reception honors Bonnie Wade

Centre of attraction Sunday afternoon was tiny christening principal, Bonnie Carolyn Wade when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wade held a reception in her honor at their home on 1443 Sixth Avenue East.

The 11-month-old baby was christened earlier in the day at the morning service in First United Church by Rev. Vernon E. McEachern.

In attendance at the afternoon affair was the principal's godmother, Mrs. Bonnie E. Gearing who presented her name-sake, with a sterling silver ratle.

Other guests present were Mr. McEachern, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Creed, Mrs. James Rhodes, Mrs. John Bateman and her son Patrick Bateman.

Godparents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Taylor of St. Genevieve de Pierrefonds, Quebec, were unable to attend and were representd during th service by Mr. and Mrs. Creed.

Toast to Bonnie Carolyn was proposed by Mr. McEachern and Mr. Creed, to which the principal's father responded.

A christening cake attractively decorated with pink frosting and silver leaves highlighted the buffet lunch served to the guests.

FAMILY FUN

Evan Kemp's big show Friday night

Evan Kemp and his B. C. Trail Riders orchestra will appear tomorrow night on stage of the Civic Centre at 8:30 with a host of Canadian radio and stage stars in a show "For all the Family."

The popular radio and recording star is billed as "The Voice of the Golden West" and appears here with an all new revue stage show and dance performance.

On the program with Evan Kemp will be Vancouver's Louis Armstrong—'Satchmo The Hawk' who also is featured as an accordianist.

Billed as The Flying Scotchman is Haggis McBagpipe with kilt and brogue.

Also taking the spotlight will be King Holiday and his golden saxophone.

"Litle Joe" the wrangler is noted as the hottest man on drums and providing fun for all will be the amazing Peter Rolston and pal George, Vancouver's greatest ventriloquist and magician in an act to entertain the entire family.

At the dance to follow, Evan Kemp and his well-known band of musicians wil play oldtime, modern, western and rock 'n roll music to set the tempo.
