Delegation Seeking WCB Changes

VICTORIA (CP)—The provincial cabinet was asked today to remove top officials from the Workmen's Compensation Board if discontent with handling of claims is not cleared up.

A delegation of labor leaders representing some 150,000 B.C. workers presented a brief claiming misinterpretation of the Compensation Act was defeating its purpose.

The brief said board's insistence on injured workmen furnishing "proof of accident" as the cause of their disabilities was causing the unrest.

It said the troubles have coincided with "numerous changes of personnel at the top" of the board, including chairman J. Edwin Eades, appointed in May, 1955.
