HIGH FLYER— Comdr. Jack Morrissey, Navy test pilot, tests the Navy's new full-pressure stratosphere suit developed by B. F. Goodrich to protect flyers at 80,000 feet where exposure to thin atmosphere can cause a man's blood to boil. The suit also retains its life-saving pressure after a pilot bails out and will keep him afloat and safe from exposure in cold water.

Slight Surplus

PENTICTON, B.C. (CP)—Women outnumber men here. The census shows 6,065 females and 5,820 males.

You can't go "ALL-OUT" if you feel "ALL-IN"

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter. 99

Blackwood on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Mr. Dale Uses Rule of 11; Defeats 3NT Contract Handily

When the subject of bridge comes up at a party, it seems that someone always tells about a relative (usually a cousin, I believe) who is "a wonderful player" and who "knows every card in everyone's hand after the first trick has been played."

It is no coincidence that these stories are always told by non-bridge players. The more you know about the game, the more you realize that no such genius exists.

Mr. Dale could not place every card in today's deal, but he could place one card with reasonable assurance. And that was enough to enable him to find the killing defense.

Mrs. Keen led the four of spades and the five went on from dummy. Mr. Dale played the nine and Mr. Abel made the rather silly false-card of the ace.

Using the rule of 11, Mr. Dale subtracted the number of the card led from 11. Four from 11 is seven. He knew there were seven spades higher than the four, outside of his partner's hand. He had one higher than the four, dummy had three and therefore Mr. Abel had three.

Now, if there was any future in the spade suit for the defenders, Mrs. Keen would have to have led from the king. Assuming she had that card, what were Mr. Abel's spades? If he had started with A J 6 or A 10 6, surely he would have won the first trick with the jack or the 10.

But he hadn't. So apparently he did not have either of those cards. Could he have had A 7 6? No, because then Mrs. Keen would have held K J 10 4 and from that holding she would have led the jack instead of the four.

On this reasoning Mr. Dale placed the king of spades in the closed hand and forgot about the spade suit.

At trick two Mr. Abel finessed the queen of diamonds. Mr. Dale won with the king and led the trey of hearts. Mrs. Keen put up the queen and Mr. Abel let it hold. The six of hearts was returned and this time Mr. Dale ducked, letting dummy's jack win.

The club finesse was now the only play Mr. Abel had for nine tricks and when that lost, another heart lead enabled Mr. Dale to cash two tricks in that suit to beat the hand.

Note that a spade return by Mr. Dale at trick three would have given Mr. Abel time to set up both his diamonds and clubs and rack up an easy game.

MODERN CHOIRBOYS

LONDON (CP)— Choirboys are making the most of the "labor shortage" in their own field, says Rev. William Simons of St. James', Fulham. "It is almost impossible to make them obey any rules—they even threaten to strike," he said. "The inducement of the Sunday school treat no longer has any appeal."

Stars Edge Sea Kings

Sparked by John Dopson, North Star Bottlers edged Sea Kings 5-4 last night in a Prince Rupert Little League thriller down at Algoma Park.

After Sea Kings had collected two runs in the first inning, Stars' Dopson belted a home run with one aboard after Colussi had doubled Warren home.

The bottlers went further ahead in the second on a double by Postula and singles by Tindill and winning pitcher Thompson. Although Thompson gave up 10 hits, sharp fielding kept the Sea Kings at bay despite the heroic efforts of losing pitcher Tough who struck out seven bottlers, only walked one man and gave up three less hits than his opposite number. Thompson only fanned one and walked two.

A Sea King rally in the fifth fell short at one run.
