City priest weds couple at Alice Arm

A late afternoon wedding in Torbit Silver Mines, Alice Arm, B.C. was the highpoint in the social life of the district May 8 when Marita Anne Coyne of Flin Flon, Manitoba became the bride of Emile Michal Marback of Nanaimo, B.C.

Rev. Robert Dalton of Prince Rupert officiated at the service which was the first wedding ceremony performed in the Torbit Silver Mines camp during its ten-year operation.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Lewis Smith, the bride wore a white lace and embroidered sateen gown, and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Anne Cenci and best man was Heinz Eichorn.

The ceremony and reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and twin sister, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

For their honeymoon the bridal couple left on the CPSS Princess Louise for Prince Rupert en route to the United States by car.

The newlyweds will return via the prairie provinces to Vancouver Island, to make their future home near Nanaimo.

FRANCOIS LAKE—Mrs. Henry Smith travelled here with S. B. Calder by train when he returned this week from Prince Rupert. She was very ill early this year and it is hoped that a change will help her regain her health.

Water is rushing down in the creeks to the lakes as the snow melts back in the hills and mountains. Deep Creek is causing trouble at Tchesinkut Lake. Last year the old bridge was taken out over Deep Creek and two huge culverts were placed side by side under the highway. The water has been coming from Neil Kelly's side of the road at such a pace and with such power that the culverts have been forced upwards. Before they rose so far that the highway was broken up, loads of gravel have been dumped on the side of the road to hold the culverts down. It looks queer to see the culverts poking up beside the road.

The Womens Institute showed some educational films in the hall here on Saturday evening, and we were shown one of Kitimat, showing how the men came first and how houses were built, then schools, and then how the wives and children came along. The story was told in pictures of one man, and we were all interested particularly as it was of Steve Stephenson who was at one time our Game Warden here at Burns Lake. He later went to Kitimat.

Ernie Howard is back with us again after being away for 16 years, working for the Forestry. When we took over this store 17 years ago Ernie was managing it for Verne Taylor, and he helped up for a month until we got used to the work. He is living in the little log building at the corner on what was the Peterson farm, now owned by John Keefe Jr.

More than 650 see Capers for third time

A sell-out crowd of more than 650 jammed the Civic Centre auditorium Saturday night for a third performance of the "Centennial Capers."

The Len Harrington stage production was performed with the same cast and almost identical numbers as the first two showings May 2 and May 3.

The program was spiced with guest artist appearances.

Vladimir, Russian city 110 miles from Moscow, is mentioned in chronicles dating back to 1108.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD Carmen Ferrugia, whose parents brought her to Hamilton from Malta six months ago, wanted to impress her class-mates so she came to school in the prettiest dress she has ever worn, her communion dress. Because of language trouble, she thought she was being rebuked when the teacher asked her about the dress and she fled the classroom. Later she was found crying in a downtown department store. But a reunion with mother who works in the store dried up her tears. (CP Photo)

Wells infant baptized at Cathedral ceremony

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the scene of a lovely christening ceremony yesterday afternoon when Rev. Stanley Leech of Masset baptized the nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wells.

Receiving names Marianne Ellen, the little principal wore a traditional christening robe of white crepe.

Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Britten and Mrs. Charles Whatman, all of this city.

Following the ceremony a family tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wells on 1643 Atlin Avenue.

In attendance were the baby's brother Michael, 4, her sister Sheila, 3, and maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilson of West Summerland, B.C. who are presently her on a 10-day visit.

The principal's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wells of Edmonton, Alberta.

Eleven girls fete mothers at First Baptist banquet

Eleven young girls between the ages of nine and 10 years honored their mothers Friday night when Mrs. Lloyd Bowman's Sunday school class of First Baptist church staged a "Mother and Daughter" banquet in the church hall in honor of Mother's Day, yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Roskam, wife of church pastor, Rev. Roskham, assisted Mrs. Bowman with the banquet arrangements and receiving the guests.

Mrs. P. H. Linzey, assisted in the kitchen.

Following the banquet each girl presented her mother with a corsage.

A series of games concluded the affair.

IODE plans women's home in Vancouver

The Queen Mary chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Wednesday afternoon learned that the provincial IODE chapter is planning to sponsor a home for elderly women.

Addressing the group was Regent Mrs. John Kasper, giving her report of the IODE provincial convention held in Vancouver last month when the new provincial project was proposed.

Mrs. Kasper said that all chapters in British Columbia were asked to give financial and moral support to the venture.

In other business members were reminded to attend Empire Day celebrations to be conducted in the city and Port Edward schools, May 16.

At the meeting held at the home of Mrs. William Bussey, Mrs. A. S. Hamilton won the monthly prize.

Next meeting, June 4, will be held at the home of Mrs. Kasper.

Honestly, how much do you know about paint? You know the color you want, you know you want the color to last, you know you want the paint to go on easily. And all you know about quality is that you want it to be the best. That's why you're wise to choose any of the Bapco Paints. Because inside every can is the finest pigment, the best oil (or alkyd or acrylic or latex, depending on the base of the paint you choose). In addition, every Bapco Paint is quality-tested ten different ways before it leaves the Bapco laboratories. Technically speaking, no better paints are made. Speaking of results, use Bapco next time you paint and prove all this for yourself!
Indoors: Baptone, Satin-Glo Latex, Satin-Glo Enamel, Satin-Glo Satin. Outdoors: Bapco Pure Paint, Bapco Shingoleen, Baprok, Bapco Marine Paint.
