Centennial Canoe Race Planned

VANCOUVER (CP)— An international canoe race down the fast-flowing Fraser River will be part of British Columbia's 1958 centennial celebrations. The board of directors of the provincial committee also approved the re-enactment of Simon Fraser's historic voyage 150 years ago down the river that bears his name.

The canoe race, tentatively scheduled for July, will be restricted to one-man canoes.

Three birch bark canoes will carry 18 men down the Fraser in the re-enactment of Simon Fraser's trip. It will take about a month to voyage down the river from Prince George to Vancouver.

In a bid for authenticity, the men will use rope ladders to negotiate the treacherous Fraser Canyon, just as the explorers did.

ABUNDANT LIFE
BY ORAL ROBERTS

EPILEPTIC MOTHER FINDS GOD'S WAY OUT

In almost every denomination there are devout ministers who pray for the sick and see them healed.

The Rev. Roland Brown, former pastor of Parkside Baptist Church in Chicago, enjoys such a ministry. His work was so effective and fruitful that he resigned his pastorate in order to give full time to this phase of his ministry.

The following account is about a victim of that most embarrassing disease, epilepsy. I said victim—I mean victor over epilepsy, and this came in answer to prayer and faith.

For 20 years Mrs. M. G. had suffered from epileptic seizures; sometimes several a day. Her husband said that in 10 years of married life, his wife had an average of at least eight epileptic seizures a week.

In church, on the sidewalk, at home, in stores, wherever she was, the attacks took her. She and her husband had resigned themselves to a hopeless situation. No matter where they went, there was always the fear and dread knowledge that a seizure was liable at any moment. How tragic! How sad!

But healing services were carried on at the Baptist Church where Mr. Brown was pastor. People gave in reports and testimonies of being healed.

One day Mrs. M. G. came and asked for prayer and timidly asserted that she believed God could set her free. An hour of prayer was held at her home. This Baptist preacher declares in the book Recovery, by Starr Daily:

"I prayed without hesitancy, asking for her complete recovery; that God would eliminate her attacks; that Jesus would command them even as he had commanded the unclean spirits.

"Then I left a few suggestions with her. When she felt an attack coming on she was to take a firm grip on Jesus and to lay hold on his promises. She was to allow herself to become invaded and filled with his presence so that he could protect her from the invasion of the oncoming attack.

"The woman, being in great need, took hold of the process and put it into practice. At the end of two months there had been no further attacks. That had been the longest free period in twenty years. Whenever she felt the attack coming she immediately called upon Jesus to invade her life instead, and in each case the onslaught had been repulsed. Never before had she known this experience of witnessing the arrest of a spell once it had begun.

"Shortly after this, the family moved and I lost contact with them. That was in 1935. In 1940 contact was again resumed and I learned that the woman had been completely healed."

Neighbor, there are NO HOPELESS CASES WITH GOD. I believe in medical science. We should use it. But God does the impossible.
