9 IN MEMORIAM

HALL —In loving memory of William Thomas who passed away Oct. 3, 1956.
Today recalls the memory
Of a loved one gone to rest,
And those who think of him today
Are those who loved him best.
The flowers we lay upon his grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love for him who lies beneath,
Will never fade away.
From the Family. (1tp)

ACCORDING to a poll conducted by the London Daily Mirror the out-sized, over-exposed bust is losing its popularity. The vote apparently indicated that Britons are getting a little tired of the bosom cult and were inclined to frown on such amply-endowed gals as Marilyn Monroe and Liz Taylor, above. No word has been heard on this side of the Atlantic, of a similar censure by red-blooded Canadian males.

BUST MAY HAVE HAD IT

Vote Says Tape Measure No Longer Talent Gauge

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Britain's first bosom ballot indicated today that the out-sized, over-exposed bust is losing its popularity.

The poll was conducted by the mass circulation tabloid Daily Mirror which, week in and week out, devotes almost as much attention to the female chest as does a good uplift bra.

The newspaper had second thoughts about the bosom cult when actress Jayne Mansfield (41-18-35½) flew into London last week to advertise her latest film.

Devoting its entire front page to Miss Mansfield's ample dimensions, the paper that claims 13,000,000 daily readers asked:

"Has the bust had it? Can you still win friends and influence people with a tape measure Has inflation gone too far?"

The anatomical editorial added quickly:

"We don't advocate a bustless world. We're just wondering."

ASKED FOR IT

The paper urged its readers to send in their opinions. Today it said it was flooded with replies and published a few of them. These were some of the comments:

"For heaven's sake, we've had enough of these Busty Berthas and this is not sour grapes. I'm 38-24-36."

"Unnatural, over-rated, nauseating."

"We're just a little bit tired of this sexy bust business. Give me a girl with a personality. I'm not being catty, by the way. My bust measures 40 inches. I wish it didn't."

JUST JEALOUS

From pro-busters came these comments:

"People who are not interested in a lovely figure are either too old to care or just plain jealous."

"I certainly hope the bust isn't on its way out. I am very plain and my 37½ inches are all I have to keep up my morale."

Without revealing the actual numbers of pro and con letters, the Mirror summed up:

"The out-sized over-exposed celebrity bosom has had it as far as most of you are concerned But you have nothing against an attractive figure displayed with taste—blessed with talent."

The paper published two more pictures of amply endowed females to illustrate its point.

Funeral Held For Pioneer At Burns Lake

Special to The Daily News

FRANCOIS LAKE — A large crowd of friends gathered last Monday to pay their last respects to district old timer Frederick Knowles, 74, for whom funeral services were held at the Anglican church in Burns Lake. Rev. John Frame officiated.

Mr. Knowles died September 20, after being in Burns Lake hospital for three weeks following a stroke.

Born near Guilford, Surrey, England, Mr. Knowles came to Canada in 1903 and spent most of his life trapping, prospecting and mining. Until seven years ago he travelled about Vancouver Island and the B.C. mainland but spent most of his time on his trapline in the Whitesail district near Ootsa Lake. He was at one time during his life cook for the late Lord Tweedsmuir.

He never married and has no known living relatives.

Pallbearers for the service in the flower-filled church were John Keefe, Reginald Partington, Donald Eaton, William Harrison, Charles Beatty and James Jeffery. Honorary pallbearers were Barney Mulvany and Harold Neave.

IODE Bridge Scheduled To Start Soon

Plans were completed for the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Cambrai chapter's annual "Merry-Go-Round" bridge to get under way the middle of the month at the group's regular meeting held last night at the home of Mrs. A. S. Cooper.

Second vice-regent Mrs. C. G. Ham, presiding on behalf of past-regent Mrs. Alex Brebner, who recently left the city for eastern Canada, announced that again proceeds from the bridge tournament will go towards the IODE scholarship.

In other business Mrs. W. J. Zacour and Mrs. Cooper submitted their names for the Civil Defence course in Ottawa next April.

Following a motion by education secretary Mrs. J. J. Comadina, the meeting voted to exchange the attractive scrapbook made by pupils at Port Essington school with an overseas school.

Further plans were made for the annual IODE fall bazaar, November 27.

Members heard accounts of Mrs. Ham's and Miss Evylen Rivett's travel this summer in England and France.

The monthly prize was won by Mrs. Cooper. Next meeting will be held November 6 at the home of Mrs. Comadina. 407 Fifth Avenue West.

GOVERNOR OF CEYLON PRAISES CANADA'S COLOMBO PLAN AID

COLOMBO (AP) — Nearly 60 per cent of help Ceylon has got from the Colombo Plan has come from Canada, Ceylon's Governor-General Sir Oliver Goonetilleke said today when he opened a cold storage and fish by products plant in Colombo. Both were gifts from Canada.

Since 1951, Canada has given Ceylon nearly £4,000,000 ($11,200,000), Goonetilleke said.

He recalled how much Ceylon owed former Canadian prime minister St. Laurent.

He said: "It was the day St. Laurent was leaving Ceylon after his visit here a few years ago. He was walking towards his airplane when he saw a large number of schoolchildren pressing against the guard rail of the airport. As he walked away — I was nearest him — he kept on repeating 'I must do something for these children.' He has done a great deal for them."

Petitions to save Klingbell's life are being circulated through the Okanagan Valley and Vancouver.
