Captured, Sentenced

OLIVER, B.C. (CP) — A 20-year-old Saskatchewan youth was captured, charged, and sentenced Thursday to six months in jail within three hours after Syd's garage, north of Oliver, was robbed of $30.

RCMP captured Lyn Allen Murphy of Saskatoon shortly after 2 p.m. The robbery occurred at noon. When captured, Murphy was with three other persons whom he said he did not know. He was taken to Oliver where Magistrate R. E. Meadows sentenced him to six months in Oakalla prison. The other three persons were released.

Attendant Sid Scott said he saw Murphy rush from the service station with the money in his hand. He gave chase but could not catch him.

LABOR CHIEF AT SCENE — Violence broke out between non-striking employees of Gaspe Copper Mines, Limited, and a province-wide labor delegation visiting Murdochville, Quebec. Claude Jodoin, second from left in this Montreal Star photo, president of the Canadian Labor Congress, protests to Quebec Provincial Police against stoning of delegates by non-striking workers. IT'S A WATCHAMACALLIT — No name has been found as yet for this new 11-foot-high bronze sculpture that stands in West Berlin's Spandau district. Adorning a new housing project, the modernistic piece was created by Joachim Schulze, a Berlin Art Academy student. Are these atomic-age birds? Rebellious ice-cream cones? Or are they children dancing in the Black Forest?
