8 CARD OF THANKS

Home Delivery Daily Snack Bar
The management wishes to take this opportunity of thanking all the children, teens and parents who visited the concession at McClymont Park this summer. It was indeed my pleasure to have met and served you. I hope in this small way your summer holidays were made just a little more enjoyable, and to wish you every success in your coming term in school.
Please remember your safety rules. God Bless You all.

$250 fine set in charge of assembly

A fine of $250, costs was handed out to Donald Richard Temple Way of 310 Seventh Avenue West after he was found guilty of being a member of an unlawful assembly by Magistrate E. T. Applewhaite in city police court this morning.

Way, was one of the several persons charged with being members of an unlawful assembly in connection with the centennial riot, August 3. He was remanded without plea August 4 and pleaded not guilty August 12.

In convicting Way, Magistrate Applewhaite said:

"The evidence submitted by the defence is so full of inconsistencies that I find myself unable to give it much weight."

In default of payment Way was sentenced to three months in jail. A. Bruce Brown was the Crown prosecutor and defence cousel was Ivor Donald of Kitimat.

Ronnie Knox signs with Argos

TORONTO (CP) — Quarterback Ronnie Knox has come to the rescue of last-place Toronto Argonauts but his stepfather Harvey has been cut from the team. Knox last played Big Four football in Canada in 1956, when he was hired by Hamilton Tiger-Cats at $1,000 a game. He played seven games and completed 41 of 64 passes, but then his glib stepfather talked him out of a job by telling coach Jim Trimble Ronnie should take over as first-string quarter.

He completed the season with Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, and since then has played in only one football game.

Registration tomorrow only

Due to the large number of applications, registration in the First Prince Rupert Brownie Pack is open tomorrow morning, only, in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Hall at 10 a.m., Brown Owl Mrs. George W. Cook anounced today.

Model plane club planned at meeting

Model airplane enthusiasts will form a club in Prince Rupert at an open meeting 2 p.m. Sunday at the Aero Club, organizer Ron Trainor reported today.

For the past four or five Sundays several city residents have watched a group of model airplane enthusiasts flying their small crafts at the Canadian National Railway Park.

Mr. Trainor, said that they expect to have about 40 members take active part in the club.

All members will be associated with the model aeronautical association of Canada, which entitles each member to a public liability insurance policy.

Any person interested in joining the new club are asked to attend the meeting Sunday in the Aero Club at Seal Cove, or contact Mr. Trainor at the Kit Shop on McBride Street.
