THE OTHER WHITE SLAVER IS CONVICTED UNDER MANN ACT

GENERAL OF UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER GENERAL OF IMMIGRATION TO RECEIVE PENITENTIARY SENTENCE FOR HIS DEBAUCHING INFLUENCE.

(Special to The Daily News) San Francisco, Sept. 6.—Farley Gaminetta was yesterday found guilty on one count of the violation of the Mann white slave act, the pronouncement of sentence not follow the conviction as there are other charges to be dealt with.
During the hearing Lola Norris, whom the prisoner had seduced to Reno, admitted having furnished false evidence in regard to her relations with Gaminetta. She testified she had not told the jury when they were arrested at Reno, as she had decided then to shield the man she loved whom she then trusted.
Mrs. Gaminetta followed her husband's testimony throwing interesting sidelights on the "eternal triangle," but in the main a repetition of what she had previously told for the benefit of Diggs at his trial. She made a willing and even eager witness for her husband.
Gaminetta did not testify in person for his defence, as the government forestalled him, and in place he listened to his own words as taken down by a Sacramento court reporter. Gaminetta did not deny his acts, but sought to qualify them by the motives from which they sprang. He told how he happened "incidentally and accidentally" to leave his wife in Sacramento with a baby three weeks old, when he started across the California line with Lola Norris. His defence was to all intents and purposes the same as that put forward by his companion, Diggs, convicted on like charges.

RECEIVER APPOINTED FOR THE DOUGHTY FISHING ENTERPRISES

GEORGE DOUGHTY ACTING AS TRUSTEE FOR THE DEBENTURE HOLDERS—WAS TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL WHEN IN NEW YORK.

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—Mr. J. K. H. local manager of the Bank of Toronto, was this morning appointed receiver of the B. C. Fisheries Company on the application of Mr. J. E. Bird, solicitor for the debenture holders. The order was made by Mr. Justice Clement and carries into effect a previous order made by Mr. Justice Warrington in the chancery division of the High Court of England.
The company had been notified of the application but entered no opposition. Sir George Doughty, the promoter and president of the company, is acting as trustee for the debenture holders, before whom the proposals in regard to the company's future were laid at a meeting three weeks ago. It was stated to his lordship that the debenture issues were for $250,000, of which 80 per cent. was subscribed by parties for whom the Bank of Toronto is acting as agent. Sir George Doughty started a fortnight ago for the old country but he got no farther than New York, where he lies ill in bed.

DESCRIBES HORRORS OF SHUSHANA TRAIL

Says Many Are Facing Starvation and Death at the McCarthy End of Railway.

(Special to The Daily News) Seattle, Sept. 6.—Grace Bostwick, a newspaper woman who has just returned from the north, describes the horrors of the trail which starts from Cordova to the Shushana district. She says there are graves all along the way and dead horses everywhere. There are insurmountable difficulties of every kind. One part of the trail from McCarthy is bog and mire for miles and miles. She says that many at the McCarthy end of the railway are facing starvation and death.

THE CITY SOLICITOR AT THE CONVENTION

Mr. Peters Brings Forward Resolution That Province Shall Pay for Prisoners.

(Special to The Daily News) Vancouver, Sept. 6.—At the convention of British Columbia Municipalities yesterday City Solicitor Peters of Prince Rupert fathered a resolution to amend that section of the municipalities act which provides that the municipality must pay for the keep of prisoners when it is possible, instead of sending them to the provincial prisons. The amendment was carried and will be brought before the government.

THAW MILLIONS SECURE ONE MORE STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES ORDERED THE DEGENERATE'S DEPORTATION AS AN UNDESIRABLE, BUT COUNSEL SECURED ANOTHER HABEAS CORPUS WRIT.

(Special to The Daily News) Coaticook, Que., Sept. 6.—The immigration officials, after an examination of Harry K. Thaw, decided that he was an undesirable under the act and ordered his deportation. But Mr. Joyce, deputy attorney general of New York state, had Thaw arrested for gambling on a railway. He was arrested on the train playing poker, the cards and chips confiscated and the newspaper men he was playing with were also arrested and placed in jail.
Thaw was later admitted to bail in $500 and proceeded on the way to cross the international boundary line. There was a scurry then among the United States officials. Sheriff Hornbeck, of the county in which Matteawan asylum is situated, was ready to arrest him when he stepped on American soil and there were many others ready to aid him.

"Better have your machines ready, boys," said Prosecuting Attorney Jerome. "We shall soon be in Vermont."
But in the meantime Thaw's counsel had secured a second habeas corpus writ from a Montreal judge restraining Thaw's arrest, in order to be able to produce him in further proceedings on September 15th, when Thaw will appear before a Montreal court. This was a knockout for the United States lawyers and officials, and they gloomily took the court.

CRUISER WILLIAM JOLIFFE IS BOUGHT BY CANADIAN PACIFIC

CHARTERED FISHERY CRUISER WILL JOIN THE GREAT FLEET OF THE CANADIAN PACIFIC SOME TIME NEXT MONTH.

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—The chartered fisheries protection cruiser William Joliffe has been purchased by the C. P. R. and will join the service of the big company in October, according to well authenticated reports current along the waterfront. The Joliffe will be taken over by the C. P. R. for use in towing the coal hulks. The fleet will then consist of the Joliffe, the Czar, the Nanose and the Qualicum.
The William Joliffe is a two funneled steamer, but when she joins the C. P. R. fleet she will be placed on one boiler and one funnel and will be transformed into an oil burner. A new boiler will be installed for this purpose. The Joliffe is at present under charter to the Dominion government at a rate of one hundred and fifty dollars a day and she is now completing her second year as a fisheries protection cruiser. During her employ she has done valuable work in scaring poachers from Canadian waters and has also several captures to her credit. Captain Newcombe is the fisheries officer on board the vessel.

The William Joliffe is owned by the B. C. Salvage Co., who brought her out from Liverpool five or six years ago. The tug is well known at the Mersey port for she was one of the famous Joliffe fleet of deep sea tugs which undertook many notable long distance tows.
The release of the William Joliffe from the government service will coincide with the arrival of the first of the two cruisers built for Canada at Dublin. These vessels are modelled on the lines of the cruisers employed in the Irish and Scotch fisheries protection service and the first one is now on her way to this coast. The second is to be delivered at Esquimalt in February next.

DOES VANCOUVER IMAGINE PRINCE RUPERT IS SLEEPING?

BUSINESS MEN OF THE SOUTHERN CITY URGED TO GO AFTER TRADE ALONG LINE OF G. T. P. FROM PRINCE RUPERT EAST.

In a recent editorial in the Vancouver Sun in connection with J. W. Stewart's announcement that G. T. P. steel will be connected in April or May next, the business men are urged to get busy after the trade that will develop in Northern British Columbia. It is evident from the editorial that in the opinion of some people in Vancouver the trade of the vast territory being opened up by the G. T. P. naturally belongs to the lower coast city. One would imagine they are under the impression that the business men of Prince Rupert are peacefully sleeping and are going to let what rightfully belongs to them slip through their fingers. Following is an extract from the editorial:

Vancouver is now, and it will be many years before Vancouver will have a better chance to tap the trade of the north of this province than she has now.
"Already the merchants of Winnipeg and Edmonton are active; they have their travellers
