SPORTS GIFTS—Whatever four-year-old Bruce Hewitt gets for Christmas, you can bet it will be something to do with sports; it runs in the family! His father is Bill Hewitt, left, who announces the N.H.L. hockey games on the CBC radio and television networks each week. His great-grandfather (back) W. A. Hewitt, is a noted sports official, and his grandfather, when he's not playing Santa Claus, is famed Foster Hewitt, dean of Canadian sports announcing. His progenitors are trying to convince Bruce that men's toys make best presents.

Gamble keeps evil eye on Westminster Royals

SEATTLE (AP)—Bruce Gamble of Vancouver Canucks has taken over Western Hockey League goalkeeping honors, tanks to an amazing hex he holds over New Westminster.

In his first season as a professional, Gamble saw his goals-against average drop to 2.44 this week after blanking the Royals 3-0 Sunday for his fifth whitewashing of the campaign.

It was Gamble's fourth consecutive home-ice shutout against the Royals, who have yet to score a goal this season in Vancouver.

On the scoring front Guyle Fielder of Seattle continued to dominate the field. The Totems centre picked up three points in a pair of games against Spokane to boost his total to 48.

Tied for second with 34 points each are Jerry Melnyk of Edmonton, Max Mekilok of Spokane, and Bill Mosienko and Gerry Brisson of Winnipeg.

Melnyk was tied with Don Chiupka, Seattle, Hugh Barlow, New Westminster, and Barrie Ross, Winnipeg, for most goals—16.

"No action" after brawl at Detroit

TORONTO (CP)—The Globe and Mail quotes National Hockey League President Clarence Campbell as saying he plans no action against Detroit Red Wing manager Jack Adams for remarks against a referee attributed to Adams Monday night.

Adams was reported to have said referee Ed Powers had "chickened out" in levying penalties after a brawl at Detroit between Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens and Wings' Norm Ullman.

The Detroit manager said Richard should have drawn an extra penalty for cutting Ullman, who came out of the fracas with a head wound.

Campbell is quoted as saying in a telephone interview from Montreal that he wouldn't act in the matter because use of the expression "doesn't seriously impugn the integrity of the official."

Last Night's Fights

Ottawa (AP)—J. D. Ellis, Trenton, N.J., outpointed Davey Dupas, New Orleans, 10, lightweights.

Cleveland (AP)— Rory Calhoun, 158½, White Plains, N.Y., outpointed Ralph (Tiger) Jones, 154, Yonkers, N.Y., 10.
