$75 Fine Set After Mishap

A charge arising out of an accident that happened near 100-mile house on June 17 was dealt with in Prince Rupert police court yesterday morning.

Reason for this was that destination of Laszlo Gencsy, the man involved in the accident, was Prince Rupert. Mr. Gencsy, now living at 2175 Seal Cove Circle, had no fixed address at that time.

Mr. Gencsy pleaded guilty to a charge of driving without due care and attention and was fined $75 with option of 20 days' imprisonment by Magistrate W. D. Vance.

Police said that the accused had been driving his car at excessive speed and lost control over it. It careened into the the ditch and overturned.

Nobody was injured in the accident, but the car is considered a total loss.
