

RESIDENT CHAMBERLIN KNIGHTED BY THE KING

CHAIRMAN SMITHERS CONFIDENTLY ASSERTS THAT THE ROAD WILL BE FINISHED NEXT YEAR

CHAIRMAN SMITHERS CONFIDENT LINE IS LINKED UP NEXT YEAR

PRINCE RUPERT WILL ALWAYS CONTINUE MAIN PORT, BUT COMPANY WILL LEASE LINE FROM FORT GEORGE TO VANCOUVER.

(Special to The Daily News) Montreal, Sept. 9.—"I do not think there are many people at home who consider Canada over-rated," said Mr. Smithers, chairman of the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Pacific, last upon his return from a trip to the west. "There is not any inequality in Canada that I know of which is unable to pay its debts. The fact is that opinion has been getting too cheap in the past; her value will have to pay more for her future."

Mr. Smithers asserted as a fact that the Grand Trunk Pacific will be completed next year. He said there would be no letting up in the building operations as long as there was a mile of steel to be laid between the eastern and western terminals.

President Chamberlin is going over some of the branches and to the end of steel. Mr. Smithers is to await here until he returns. "When I return to England," continued Mr. Smithers, "it will be as one sharing the confidence of Canadians with British friends in the Grand Trunk Pacific enterprise and its bright future. As to the west, Prince Rupert, of course, will always continue to be our main port, but we shall also operate a line to Vancouver. We intend to lease the line now under construction from Fort George to Vancouver."

SUBWAY TUNNEL FOR PROVINCIAL BUILDING

Will Run from First Avenue to Third and Through the Basement of the Building.

Formal application was made by the provincial government, through Agent McMullin, to the city council last night for leave to drive a subway from First to Third avenue into the basement of the provincial buildings, now in course of erection. This subway will pass under the street surrounding the building, which is now known as Government place, the entrance being opposite Manson way and the exit below the Japanese boarding house on Third avenue.

The board of works having looked into the matter with the city engineer, they approved of the plans and the council endorsed the board's recommendation.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR THE COMING FAIR

Council Advances $1,500 to Fair Directors to Assist Them in Necessary Financing.

On a request from the directors of the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association the city council last night voted in favor of an advance of $1,500 to the association. The city council some time ago pledged itself to grant to the exhibition a sum equal to that raised from other sources, not including the government grant. In view of the fact that the association has already raised $3,365 the finance committee recommended that an advance be made.

At the meeting of the city council last night the application from the proprietors of pool rooms for a reduction in the license fees, which came up at the last meeting of the council, was replied to. The licensing committee reported that it could not see any way to granting the reduction at present, and the council adopted this report.

NEW TRICKS AND DODGES OF LAWYERS PROTECTING THAW

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME IS ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING—SCORED BY THE LOCAL DOGERRRY, BUT HONORABLY DISCHARGED BY STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE.

(Special to The Daily News) Coaticooke, Que., Sept. 9.—Another phase in the legal quibbles regarding the detention of Thaw came up in the trial of William Travers Jerome for gambling. Jerome was retained by New York state to bring about the fugitive slayer's return to Matteawan, and only once has he been known to relax his vigil on Thaw's movements or those of his lawyers. This unlucky moment led to his arrest.

While waiting at the Grand Trunk depot for the train that was to carry him to New York he sat down for an informal game of cards with the reporters. The Thaw lawyers probably remarked the quiet game going on around Jerome's suitcase, for in a few minutes Policeman John Andrews, in a somewhat diffident manner, informed Mr. Jerome that he was under arrest for gambling.

He was in the jail an hour before bail in $500 was procured, when he was released, after a scorching by Justice of the Peace James McKee, who said they intended to prosecute the defendant to the full extent of the law, saying: "He cannot come here and play his cards before our children. Foreign lawyers, foreign sheriffs and foreign bailiffs have hurt the dignity of the British courts of law in the Thaw case."

All this occurred on Friday, but when the case came up for trial yesterday before the stipendiary magistrate, Mr. Jerome was very differently treated. The magistrate found Jerome not guilty of the charge of gambling and stated that he was honorably discharged. Soon after he left for New York.

What quibbles the Thaw lawyers will put up next is a matter of interesting speculation. The decision at his trial on the 15th is likely to be against him, as this is what his lawyers are playing for. Then appeal will likely follow, right up to the privy council, during which Stanford White's murderer will be enjoying his liberty.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—Three members of the Dominion police, a sergeant and two constables, have been detailed to guard Thaw at Coaticooke.

CANADIANS HONORED BY THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

TIME THAT THE ASSOCIATION HAS GONE OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES FOR A CHOICE OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

(Special to The Daily News) Montreal, Sept. 6.—Ex-President William H. Taft was elected president of the bar association at the close of the annual meeting.

From the Canadian standpoint the most notable feature of the meetings was the unanimous election of twelve Canadians to positions of honorary membership of the American Bar Association.

This was the first time that the association had gone outside of the United States for a choice of honorary members.

The list of honorary members, followed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Francois Langelier, lieutenant governor of Quebec; Hon. C. J. Doherty, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick Hon. Horace Archambault, Sir Charles Peers Davidson, chief justice of Montreal; Professor Michael Mathew, Dean Waldon of the McGill law faculty, Mayor Lavalle, J. E. Martin, K. C., batonnier of the Quebec bar, and R. C. Smith, K. C., who had been so instrumental in inducing the American Bar Association to meet in Montreal.

Outside of Canadians, the only choice of an honorary member for the association was that of Maitre Gustave Labori, leader of the French bar.

COAL SITUATION IS SERIOUS; CONSUMERS BETTER PREPARE

ATTLE CANNOT SUPPLY PRESENT DEMAND—AUSTRALIAN COAL COMING TO VANCOUVER—NO BRITISH COLUMBIA COAL IN SIGHT.

H. Rogers, of the firm of Rogers & Black, who returned on Chelohsin this morning from Seattle and Vancouver, reports that the coal situation is becoming very serious. There is practically no British Columbia coal available and the Seattle harbor is congested with barges and ships waiting to get shipments to Vancouver and other B. C. ports. Mr. Rogers went to Seattle for the express purpose of getting a supply for local consumption. He was successful in getting a shipment of only 200 tons. He had an order for 500 tons more, but it is impossible to say when he can get it.

The city of Vancouver is experiencing the same difficulties as Prince Rupert in getting an ample supply. Already several shipments of Australian coal have been received there, but the price ranges from $11 to $15 per ton.

There seems to be little likelihood of improved conditions during the approaching winter, and householders here who do not wish to suffer inconvenience will be acting wisely in laying in a supply for the winter whenever it is available.

Mr. Rogers intends making another trip to Seattle in a few days to make arrangements for further shipments if possible.

POSTMASTER GENERAL'S VISIT TO CANADA OF DEEP INTEREST

TO GET FULLY IN TOUCH WITH THE DOMINION FROM COAST TO COAST—HE MAY VISIT PRINCE RUPERT

London, Sept. 6.—Various publishers here are asserting that the visit of Postmaster General Samuel to Canada is connected with a great scheme of cable reform between the Dominion and England. This is incorrect. His primary purpose is to carry into effect, on behalf of the British Cabinet, a resolution passed two years ago by the Imperial Conference that Ministers of the United Kingdom and Dominions should, between conferences, pay reciprocal visits. Samuel's visit is the first attempt in this direction, the British Government's representative, Lord Emmott, being merely passing through to Australia.

Samuel will discuss many postal matters with the Canadian post office, but they will be most ly departmental details, rather than of public interest. He will examine with particular care recent developments in telephone systems, including the Albertan automatic telephones. He will take every opportunity of getting fully in touch with Canadian life from coast to coast.

He is bound to make a favorable impression. Young, enthusiastic and a masterly administrator, he is also a politician, has while occupying the position of Postmaster General, introduced many reforms and made himself the effective as well as the nominal head of his department. He has ruthlessly broken through red tape. He is the most brilliant financier and administrator among our younger statesmen, and possesses no mere personal charm.

tunity of presenting your views in the best possible manner. We considered the question of
