Famed arena sold

LONDON (AP)—Harringay Arena, one of London's best known indoor sports venues, is to be turned into a warehouse. The arena, built in 1936 by Calgary-born Brig.-Gen. Alfred C. Critchley, sports promoter and greyhound racing pioneer, has been sold to Allied Supplies. High operating cost was given as the reason for the sale.

Al Balding three-time golf champ

TORONTO (CP) — Al Balding fought off a recurring chest ailment and a gallant opponent Saturday to win the Canadian professional match play golf championship — and $1,000 — for the third time.

And the Toronto pro did it with the largest margin in the history of the tournament, coming out ahead 8 and 6 over Kitchener's Lloyd Tucker in the final. Toronto's Lex Robson defeated Dave Sittal, also of Toronto, 7 and 6 in 1931 for the previous record.

Balding was playing Joe Noble of Toronto Thornhill in the morning semi-final when he was gripped by chest pains and a sudden siege of nausea on the seventh green, forcing him to ask for a respite.

Noble, who could have claimed the match by default, offered to wait until Balding felt he could continue.

An hour later Balding went back to the course still shaking and beat Noble 3 and 2.

Swim meet to be held tomorrow

The centennial swim meet for children from the ages of four to 14 that was cancelled twice because of poor weather conditions will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow, Ernest Novakowski, parks supervisor reported today.

Events to take place will be as follows:

25 foot freestyle—four to six years old only.

25 yard freestyle—seven to nine years old and 10 to 14 years old.

25 yard breaststroke—seven to nine years old and 10 to 14 years old.

25 yard backstroke—seven to nine years old and 10 to 14 years old.

100 yard relay—freestyle.

100 yard relay—backstroke.

Trophys will be awarded to the high aggregate winner, the best diver, and the best style swimmer.

RAILWAY VIEW

The Rhodesia railway connecting Southern and Northern Rhodesia crosses the Zambesi River at Victoria Falls.

PARTNERS IN DARKNESS — Even though he's sightless, Hartwell Murrie doesn't need a seeing-eye dog on his farm near Vienna, Ill. The pet pooch is as blind as his master. Murrie, his sister and brother all lost their sight in childhood when crippling disease destroyed their optic nerves. Nevertheless, they have operated the 377-acre farm for years, and have always been self-supporting.

Licence reward now $25

It pays to know your automobile license number, a Third Street Real Estate firm spokesman said today.

A city motorist's license number is drawn every Monday morning and is checked with government records to find the person to whom it belongs. If the person fails to show up at the Third Street Real Estate office or see his number in the window he will not be eligable to win a cash prize.

Yesterday a person's license number was drawn and it was found to be that of former city resident Tom Inkster who has been recently transferred to Calgary so therefore he will not win the cash prize for this week which was $25 or $50 if insured with the Third Street company.

PROFIT EDGE

MONTREAL (CP) — The city's eight restaurants operated in parks made a profit of $7,552 in the year ended April 30, 1958, on receipts of $832,972.

"CRAB FANCY" GOES TO A PARTY

It's party time . . . yes a summer luncheon party. What to serve? Why not cool refreshing Crab Fancy? Sure to please all hot-weather wilted appetites.

It's easy to prepare and something that can be done long before your guests arrive. Crab Fancy is canned condensed consomme, well chilled in the can, just broken up with a fork into which you fold chunks of canned crabmeat. A combination so delicious.

Add extra attraction to this simple delicacy. Lemon slices with crisp watercress bouquets give that final touch. Vary the recipe from party to party, all summer long. Substitute lobster or shrimp for the crab, next time.

For a nice accompaniment, pass a tray of fancy sandwiches. Fresh peach shortcake topped with whipped cream and tall glasses of iced coffee complete this party luncheon. You'll be delighted with the compliments you receive.

You will be that charming hostess if you try this recipe:

CRAB FANCY (CONSOMME)

2 cans (10 ounces each) condensed consomme
1 cup flaked cooked crab (6½ ounce can)
Lemon slices
Watercress

Chill consomme until set (about 4 hours in refrigerator). Put through ricer or break up with fork. Fold in crab. Makes 4 to 5 servings. Serve with lemon slices and watercress.

SOUP SCOOPS

CHILL THIS ASPARAGUS-CHICKEN SOUP

Suit this soup to summer by chilling it. Try this combination of condensed soups for chilling: 1 can condensed cream of asparagus soup with 2 cans cream of chicken soup and 3 soup cans milk. Blend well. Chill 4 hours. Serve in icy bowls. 8 servings.

OLD PRO BOOSTS EARNINGS TO MORE THAN $250,000

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Old pro Cary Middlecoff beat off a challenge by young Bill Casper Jr. to win the $35,000 Milwaukee open golf tournament Monday by two strokes with a tournament-record 16-under-par 264 on a closing 67.

Bob Rosburg finished second with 266 and Casper wound up third with a 267.

Middlecoff's triumph, worth $5,300, boosted his official earnings in 11 years as a pro to more than $250,000 and shattered a personal 26-month major tournament victory drought. His last big victory was the U.S. Open in 1956.

The 37-year-old Middlecoff who plays out of Hollywood, Fla., equalled the best previous 72-hole score of the current pro tour and established a Milwaukee open record by one stroke.
