Schoolmates surprise bride-elect at home with miscellaneous shower

Miss Anita Rogerson was pleasantly surprised at her home on 964 Sixth Avenue East, Monday night when a group of close school friends gathered to honor her with a miscellaneous shower in honor of her forthcoming wedding Saturday night to Stanley Kaardal.

Miss Rogerson, who for the past three years has been attending schools in Vancouver returned home two weeks ago to prepare for her wedding to take place in the Church of the Annunciation.

Hostesses for the function were Miss Carol Nelson and Miss Luise Pierce.

The array of gifts were placed beside her chair, attractively decorated with pink and white streamers and topped with white wedding bells.

Adding a note of humor to the affair, the hostesses presented the bride-elect with a corsage of kitchen utensils. Games were played and refreshments, which included a shower cake, were served to conclude the party.

Guests attending were Miss Linda Strachan, Miss Margaret Strachan, Miss Kathy Roos, Miss Eloise Lahti, Miss Janet Botrakoff, Miss Julie Prockert and Miss Alice Senum.

at the . . . Museum

By JOCELYN BOLTON

During this last week we have had some very nice and interesting guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker of Tillamook, Oregon, not far from Portland, on Highway 101.

Mr. Walker is curator of natural history and his wife is called the Custodian of their museum, which is located on the highway and was originally the old court house, comprising 13 rooms.

They have an average of 25,000 guests per year. Mr. Walker gave me a little phamplet showing some of the wild life displays he has done for the museum and they are very beautiful-he is an expert taxidermist and artist. He was most impressed with our forestry display and returned to the boat to get his camera and take photographs and believes it would be an idea for their museum, as he is not happy with their forestry display.

Since our opening, just over a month, we have filled two guests books and many people do not sign, so you can see that we are getting a lot of visitors both from out of town and local—our folders are always in Prince Rupert and also good road maps for distribution.

We were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Eric Martin call and see us, and Mr. Martin kindly identified a new exhibit, a gun, which we had been unable to identify—now we know about it and eventually it will be put in our gun case. We are indebted to Kennie Ratchford for this donation to our display.

We had a lot of our young visitors on Saturday, most of which were in the throes of writing compositions and trying to find out information and we had quite a task to help them, and we hope that we did give them some useful information.

We are finding that our evening visitors are not very many, now that fall is here, so from September 15 on, for the winter months we will not be open during evening hours. However on Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. we will continue until the end of September. During October the Museum will be open from 9 to 4 p.m. except Monday—when Mrs. A. S. Apps will be in charge, while I am taking my holiday—We are fortunate in having Mrs. Apps and I know she will look after the museum and our many visitors.

I am sure this museum will be one of the most photographed in the country, people are forever taking pictures of our poles and now we have a "No Parking" area, they can get some good shots. Also pictures of the inside are in demand. Many of our guests take inside shots-including Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mohr, and these expert photographers have taken some wonderful pictures of our displays and particuplarly of our robes, which we are in the process of exhibiting, but there is quite a lot of work to frame these valuable exhibits and until this is complete they are not out for inspection. Mrs. Mohr also took a very good picture of opening night, and we feel sure F. E. Anfield will enjoy having a copy for the record, also Dr. R. G. Large - so Mrs. Mohr is kindly making a copy for us.

We have autographed copies of "Skeena, River of Destiny" on sale.
