NEW YORK'S LATEST MURDER MYSTERY IS SOLVED

FOUR INDIANS MURDERED AT KIMSQUIT—HUNDREDS OF AMERICANS IN HANDS OF REBELS

ASSISTANT RECTOR ARRESTED FOR MURDER OF YOUNG GIRL

NEW YORK MURDER MYSTERY AT LENGTH SOLVED BY THE ARREST AND CONFESSION OF CATHOLIC PRIEST WHO CUT BODY INTO PIECES

(Special to The Daily News) New York, Sept. 15.—One of the greatest murder mysteries of this city was solved yesterday, the murderer arrested and his confession placed on record. For weeks the newspapers have been writing articles in regard to the discovery of parts of the body of a young woman floating in the Hudson River. But the head was not discovered and the parts of the body secured gave no clue to identification.

While the search was going on hundreds of letters were received by the police department telling of missing girls of about the assumed age of the remains found, and hundreds of clues have been carefully run down without effect.

The last gruesome remnant picked up was contained in a flow slip that bore an embroidered monogram, and it was this clue that put the detectives on the track of the murderer and resulted in his arrest.

From the manner in which the body had been severed it was generally believed that it was the work of a skilled surgeon, and this led to many practitioners and medical students being placed under police surveillance. But the murderer is of another profession, and his arrest was as startling and caused as great a degree of public excitement as any other of the sensational episodes connected with the mystery.

The clues secured led direct to the Rev. Hans Schmidt, assistant rector of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. A few minutes after his arrest he broke down and confessed, telling the horrible story in detail. The name of the girl is Anne Aumuller. He admits that he was in love with her and says that because of his vows they could never marry and it was for this reason that he committed the crime. The police believe it was because the girl was about to become a mother, but upon this point the priest refuses to admit any knowledge.

His confession of the actual murder, however, is complete. He states that he killed the girl with a butcher knife while she slept and then left the apartment house. Afterward he returned and cut the body into pieces and disposed of them one by one. He says that after the deed was done he made six visits to the girl's room, each time bearing away parts of his unfortunate victim.

Later he admitted there had been a marriage ceremony, in which he acted both as priest and bridegroom. There were no witnesses to the ceremony, he said.

THE CHISANA OF THE MORICE RIVER VALLEY

Kid Price Swaggering Around with an Ounce He Panned from the Rimrock

There have been rumors of a gold strike coming in from over the Morice River divide for several weeks as the result of prospecting trips made by Andy Goodwill, George Ecksley, Ed. Pearson, and "Kid" Price, and when Price returned Tuesday noon with nearly an ounce of coarse gold which he said he had panned out from the rimrock along the creek bed considerable excitement was created among the people of the valley.

Immediately after the news was spread the towns of Telkwa and Aldermere were thrown into a hubbub of excitement and preparation for leaving for the prospective gold field, and Wednesday afternoon nearly a hundred men were on the trail and most of those who were unable to go sent proxies. The office of R. L. Gale, deputy mining recorder, was a busy place all day Wednesday and Thursday, where free miners' certificates and powers of attorney were being made out for those who had the gold fever, and in and around the town the talk was all of gold.—Telkwa Tribune.

Arrangements will be made by the management to have the visiting Indian bands massed at the Auditorium grounds, on Sixth avenue, where the exhibition will be held, on the initial day, when Hon. TWO LOCAL PEOPLE WIN IN SWEEPSTAKES

Alex. McDonald, of the Fire Department, Is Holder of One of the Lucky Tickets.

Alex. McDonald, a member of the Prince Rupert fire department, is one of the happiest men in the city today, being one of two local lucky ticket holders in the latest Salmon sweepstakes. His ticket, number 52355, drew Sailor Collar, but it is not known yet whether this is a starter or non-starter, and the amount of the prize is therefore uncertain. Ticket No. 29459, sold here, drew Kilkrock, but the purchaser of the ticket has not yet made application and the name is unknown.

F. Butler, a young Irishman who recently came to Victoria, is the winner of the big prize, $28,350.

Last Spike in August.

William H. Wark, of Wark & Son, returned to the city last night from an extended trip into the interior as far as Fort George. He reports great activity at that place and all along the line in the way of railway construction. Speaking to a News reporter this morning, he said he did not think it would be possible to have steel joined by April or May, but he had no doubt that the last spike would be driven in August.

T. J. Vaughan-Rhys, mining engineer of Stewart, is renewing acquaintances in the city for a few days.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE POLLARDS

Have Had Many Interesting Experiences in Varied Lands—Have Views Worth Fortune.

It is doubtful whether it is possible to find a group of young folks in the world who have travelled so far and visited so many countries as the members of the Pollard Australian Opera Company. Little Leslie Donaghey, who has made such a remarkable hit in the part of Mr. Crank, the eccentric magistrate in "Sergeant Brue," has perhaps done the most travelling. Beginning at the age of 6 (he is now 19) he has visited every country in the world with perhaps the exception of Russia. His collection of rare views got together during his travels are worth a small fortune. He and Willie Pollard (stage director) were two of the last people to cross the Modder River bridge before it was blown up during the Boer war, and many are the exciting experiences which these and other members of the company had in South Africa at that time.

Teddy McNamara, the leading comedian, is a very fine swimmer, and at one time held the under 16 championship of Australia.

Young Charlie Bennett, who plays the part of the sergeant in "Sergeant Brue," is the winner of no less than eighty prizes for humorous, dramatic and character sketches, won in competitions in Australia.

ALL REDMOND FIGHTS FOR IS SEPARATE IRISH NATIONALITY

DECLARES SIR EDWARD CARSON—ULSTER WILL NEVER ABANDON PRINCIPLE OF BEING GOVERNED BY IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT WITH RESPONSIBLE EXECUTIVE.

(Special to The Daily News) Durham, Eng., Sept. 15.—In a great speech here on Saturday night Sir Edward Carson declared that Ulster would never abandon the principle for which they fought—that of being governed by the imperial parliament with an executive responsible to that parliament. With Redmond it was not a question of good government for Ireland, but of a separate nationality. It was this point that should be kept in the

A STREET CORNER EXPERT ON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

EX-ALD. MORRISSEY'S STATEMENTS REGARDING MUNICIPAL EXPENDITURE WERE MISLEADING AND NOT IN ACCORDANCE WITH FACTS.

To the Editor of The Daily News.
Dear Sir: With Mayor Robinson's remarks in his address before the Progress Club of Vancouver a short time ago, that the most irresponsible and troublesome man in public affairs is the man who seeks his information and forms his opinions on the street corners without taking advantage of his right to go to the city hall and get the facts from the records still fresh in my mind, I was very surprised in the daily press of the 13th inst. to find that my friend ex-Alderman Morrissey has also joined this class of citizen, and I take the liberty to make a few remarks in this connection, not so much in defence of the present council's actions as in the interests of the public generally. I must say that I am at a loss to understand for what purpose my friend, ex-Alderman Morrissey is making this chain of absolutely misleading statements to the public.

In making the above remarks Mayor Robinson spoke from a six years' experience as mayor of the city of Kamloops, and any unprejudiced man, who has devoted some time to the interests of the public, will without hesitation endorse his statement. From my own experience I can say that I have in our own city found more municipal experts on the street corners than in any other place. The class of people who take their inspirations from gossips and street rumors without even taking the trouble to look into the actual facts is a danger to any community. In most cases we will find that this class consists of men with no experience in public life and not acquainted with the laws and rules governing public administration. In this case my friend, ex-Alderman Morrissey has held public office in Prince Rupert for two years and should reasonably be expected to have some knowledge as to public affairs, so there should be no excuse for him making misleading statements. Personally, I fail to find very much of common sense in Mr. Morrissey's publications, and in my humble opinion they are merely misleading statements made by a man who has no responsibility in the matter.

I do not think there is more than one figure quoted within reasonable comparison with the actual figures. The cost of the expert in laying the water mains (this must refer to the crossing of the passage) was about $1,500.

HUNDREDS OF AMERICANS IN MEXICO TAKEN BY THE REBELS

MINISTER OF WAR BLAMES IT ALL ON NEUTRALITY POLICY OF UNITED STATES, WHICH PREVENTS DEALING FIRMLY WITH REBELS.

(Special to The Daily News) El Paso, Texas, Sept. 15.—Three hundred rebels were killed by federalists in a recent battle at Saltillo, according to official general advices received here.

Mexico City, Sept. 15.—Hundreds of Americans, including women and children, refugees from Torreon, are reported to have fallen into the hands of rebels. The federal authorities at Saltillo decline to take the responsibility of sending a force to their rescue, fearing the rebels might then commit atrocities.

Minister Gamboa expresses great regret at the occurrence, but says it is no more than might be expected as the result of the neutrality policy of the United States, which hampers the administration and prevents its dealing with a firm hand with the rebel bandits.

FOUR INDIANS MURDERED AND TWO ARRESTS ARE MADE

CHIEF OWEN LEFT ON PRINCESS MARY LAST NIGHT FOR BELLA COOLA TO ATTEND PRELIMINARY HEARING—MEAGRE DETAILS RECEIVED

Chief of Provincial Police Walter Owen received a wire yesterday advising him that four Indians had been murdered at Kimsquit, near Bella Coola, and that two others had been arrested and charged with being participants in the outrage. No details whatever were given, as to whether the men arrested are whites or Indians. The telegram stated that the preliminary hearing would proceed immediately on his arrival.

Chief Owen left on the Princess Mary last night for Nanaimo, where it will be necessary to engage a launch to take him to Bella Coola.

middle of the inlet, the men proceeded to imbibe freely of whisky supposedly supplied by a Chinaman. A heated altercation commenced, resulting in the death of Charles Wilson and his wife, and Watchy Guss. George Paul was shot above the hip and was taken to the cannery by his wife, who was with him in the boat.

A gasoline launch was dispatched to Bella Coola, conveying the wounded man, Paul, who died soon after his arrival.

It is not definitely known who fired the fatal shots, but for years past serious trouble has been brewing between two factions of the Kimsquit Indians.

Provincial Constable Broughton, Special Constable Wheeler, Justice of the Peace McFarlane, Dr. Cavanagh and Indian Agent Fougner left early yesterday morning for Kimsquit, where an inquest will be held.

W. D. Vance left by the Princess Mary on Saturday to attend the sale of Fort George lots at Vancouver.
