TURKISH TOBACCO FIELDS ARE ABOUT TO CHANGE OWNERSHIP

CONTEST BETWEEN BULGARIA AND GREECE FOR THE FINAL POSSESSION OF PORT OF KAWALLA IN SOUTH-ERN MANCHURIA.

The fields producing the best Turkish tobacco in the world, the kind that is sent to Constantinople for the consumption of the Sultan, and which is sold at the highest prices in the American market, are about to change ownership. For centuries they have belonged to Turkey; today the contest between Bulgaria and Greece for the final possession of the port of Kawalla, in Southern Manchuria, will decide their future owner.

In the rich country behind Kawalla grows the best tobacco in all the Turkish Empire. The finest quality comes from the mountain slopes, the crops raised on the plains being more remarkable for quantity than quality. The best of all comes from the left bank of the Karasu River, above Kanthi, and is renowned throughout the tobacco world under the name of Glubek. This is the product that brings the highest prices, both in Europe and the United States.

The industry at Kawalla has been built up by the Turks slowly and carefully through many decades. Turks make the best tobacco growers in Southeastern Europe, and the commercial success of whatever power finally becomes possessed of this rich tobacco district, be it Bulgaria or Greece, will depend largely on whether or not the present Turkish cultivators can be persuaded to stay and labor for their new masters.

The Greeks are not inclined to careful agriculture in the tobacco fields, and while the Bulgarians make good farmers they have had comparatively little experience in tobacco growing.

The stores of Turkish tobacco on hand at the present time are so extensive, however, that it probably will be two or three years before smokers of real Turkish cigarettes will experience any shortage as a result of the Balkan war.

CHINA CONSIDERS ULTIMATUM PRESENTED TO HER BY JAPAN

JAPANESE LEGATION SAYS DEMANDS REPRESENT MINIMUM TO WHICH CHINA MUST AGREE WITHOUT DELAY OR TAKE CONSEQUENCES

Pekin, Sept. 13.—President Yuan Shi Kai and his advisers have taken under consideration the demands made by the Chinese government, which are tantamount to an ultimatum, for the killing of three Japanese at Nan-king, the maltreatment of a consular messenger, torture of a Japanese lieutenant at Hankow and the imprisonment for two days of a Japanese lieutenant at Shantung.

Japan demands an apology for the insults to the Japanese flag, the punishment of those responsible and the payment of an indemnity, the amount of which is to be arranged later.

SLIDE AT PANAMA

May Materially Defer the Opening of the Canal.

Panama, Sept. 15.—A movement of the east bank of Culebra cut, north of Gold Hill, Saturday, cast 20,000 cubic yards of rock and earth into the Panama Canal. The debris extends across the cut for a depth of several feet. This slide will not affect the flooding of Culebra cut in October, because it can be removed readily by dredges, but it may indicate the beginning of a general movement of a similar nature at the south end of Gold Hill, where several million cubic yards of earth are in motion, and thus delay the opening to navigation.

Police Called In to Quell Big Disturbances in New York.

New York, Sept. 15.—Pandemonium broke loose and police reserves had to be called Saturday when on practically all thoroughfares of the lower East Side there were straw hat riots. Victims who thought straws were "called in" September 15th were made to realize that the East Side had dedicated September 10th as the day when straws shall be discarded.

BY THE POET LAUREATE

I heard a linnet courting
His lady in the spring;
His mates were idly sporting,
Nor stayed to hear him sing
His song of love—
I fear my speech distorting
His tender love.

The phases of his pleading
Were full of young delight;
And she that gave him heeding
Interpreted aright
His gay, sweet notes—
So sadly marred in the reading—
His tender notes.

And when he ceased, the hearer
Awaited the refrain,
Till swiftly perching nearer
He sang his song again,
His pretty song—
Would that my verse spake clearer
His tender song!

Ye happy, airy creatures!
That in the merry spring
Think not of what misfeatures
Or cares the year may bring:
But unto love
Resign your simple natures
To tender love.

—From the shorter poems of Dr. Robert Bridges.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 608 Lumden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
