

SAN FRANCISCO MINT LOOTED OF THIRTY THOUSAND

BRITAIN BEGINS TO SEE ULSTER IS NOT BLUFFING--BANK RETURNS SHOW BIG IMPROVEMENT

PROMINENT MINING MEN ON VISIT TO HAZELTON DISTRICT

MINING MAN WHO HAS MADE A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION SAYS IT WILL BECOME BIGGEST MINING CAMP IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Among the arrivals by the steamer Prince Rupert this morning were P. W. Clarke, son of Patrick Clarke, a wealthy mining man of Spokane, and M. Sullivan, mining expert from Moscow. On their arrival here they were met by H. W. C. Jackson, who was engaged by the Hazelton Mine Owners' Association some time ago for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the properties in that vicinity with a view to interesting outside capital.

Mr. Jackson, who has been spending several days in the city, is most enthusiastic over the possibilities of the Hazelton district and predicts that within a short space of time it will be one of the busiest mining camps in British Columbia.

Mr. Clarke, Mr. Sullivan, and Mr. Jackson left by this morning's train for Hazelton, where they will spend some time making a careful investigation of the extent of the ore bodies. Judging from Mr. Jackson's report there seems to be no doubt but that the gentlemen he has been the means of bringing here will be so favorably impressed that extensive mining operations will start in the Hazelton district in the very near future.

BEGINNING TO REALIZE ULSTER'S NOT BLUFFING

Government Orders Irish Constabulary to Belfast to Look After Anticipated Riots.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Sept. 27.—That the government is beginning to realize that Ulster is not bluffing is shown in the fact that the Irish constabulary has been ordered to Belfast to look after the anticipated rioting at the review by Sir Edward Carson of the Ulster volunteers today. The militia is to keep order in Dublin meanwhile.

The suggestion is made that Earl Roseberry place himself at the head of the moderate Liberals, as his so doing may possibly bring order out of the home rule chaos.

ENTHUSIASTIC LIBERAL RALLY WITH OUT OF TOWN LIBERALS

Provincial Politics Discussed by A. M. Manson, Captain Fred Stork, T. J. Vaughn-Rhys, C. W. Peck, W. J. Mackenzie and Others---The Arrogant Oligarchy of Bowser-McBride Denounced

Taking advantage of the number of visiting Liberals in the city for the fair, the local Liberal association last night held a grand rally in St. Andrew's Hall and, although there were so many other attractions, there was a large attendance. President A. M. Manson made the introductory and closing speeches, and among others who made addresses were Captain Fred Stork, Mr. T. J. Vaughn-Rhys, from Stewart, C. W. Peck, Prince Rupert; W. J. Mackenzie, New Hazelton. The slogan of the gathering was: "Let's banish Bowser and smash the machine," and this proved a catching text for most of the speeches.

President Manson gave a warm welcome to the out-of-town members of the Liberal party and stated that now was the time when the party should do everything possible to strengthen its organization, in view of the fact that a redistribution bill was to be passed at the next session of the legislature which would give Skeena three seats instead of one as at present. In that case there would be an election suddenly sprung upon the people, as was the last election. That was so sudden and with such short notice that there were many voters in the district who never knew there was an election until after it was over. In the coming event the Liberal party would be found better prepared because more thoroughly organized throughout the whole district, and Sir Richard McBride would certainly not go back with the majority he has but with one very much reduced. (Applause.) But he would strongly impress upon all present that they must be on their guard against Tory tricks, and not be taken by surprise as they were the last time.

Mr. Manson then briefly sketched the history of the association and showed the tremendous results that had been accomplished in the matter of organization throughout the province. This work had been as well done in Skeena district as in any other part. Skeena was really a Liberal riding, and should return three Liberal members. It was their duty, therefore, to go out and gather in sufficient funds to make the wheels go round. If they wanted good government in British Columbia it was necessary to furnish the munitions of war.

Captain Fred Stork said it was always a pleasure to him to address a meeting of Liberals and he was pleased to have this opportunity of addressing so many from outside the city. He could not understand why any man who came to this new country could be anything but a Liberal. All the liberties enjoyed by the masses had come from the Liberal party, but in British Columbia we were governed by an arrogant autocracy. (Applause.)

But he believed the next election would prove the beginning of the end of this oligarchy. It was a time when he would flop to be a Liberal, although he was not of the flopping kind.

The Conservative party of this province was headed for the rocks as fast as it could go, being driven by the force of internal dissensions. In all likelihood there would be a redistribution of seats sprung upon them as the last election was sprung. They should be prepared. They should go back to their homes and let their neighbors know of the course of work of the Conservatives in the matter of the registration of voters for the last election. Tell them this significant fact, that, although the Bowser machine held forty seats out of the forty-one, yet the party was so badly split up that it was fearful of defeat.

T. J. Vaughn-Rhys of Stewart said the people present from the outlying districts in connection with the excellent fair should feel grateful for such an opportunity of displaying the natural resources of their several districts. Also, as they of the Skeena district were meeting in a Skeena fort they should make a declaration of faith. It was a common reproach that the Liberals had nothing to say except to utter words of fierce condemnation.

HORSE RACES WERE QUITE ENTERTAINING

Large Crowd Witnessed Some Interesting Events on Second Avenue Yesterday.

One of the most interesting features of yesterday's fair program was the horse races on second avenue. While no track records were broken, the various heats and other contests afforded a great deal of amusement for the large crowd of spectators which lined both sides of the street.

In the trotting race Roy Moore won first place and J. A. Lindsay second.

W. Sherman won first in the running event and J. A. Lindsay second.

The slow race was quite an interesting event. First prize was won by Mr. Murray and second by Mr. Milne.

In the hitching-contest J. A. Lindsay won first and Joe Lindsay second.

An unfortunate accident happened in the running race as the result of a bad saddle girth. Albert Wild, cutter at P. Burns' butcher shop, being thrown from Burns' bay saddle horse in front of the Westholme Theatre. While no bones were broken, he sustained a bad flesh wound which may lay him up for a couple of weeks.

Considerable excitement was also caused by the bolting of Frank Kelly's horse, which dashed through the crowd at the corner of Sixth street. While several persons were knocked down, none received any serious injury.

CLOSING SESSION OF THE ANGLICAN SYNOD

Many Votes of Thanks Passed—Members Spiritually Uplifted and Encouraged.

The closing session of the synod was held on Friday morning, beginning at 9:30 with a devotional meeting, which was led by Rev. Mr. McCullagh, who gave a most helpful and highly appreciated address on the equipment required by the Christian worker in order to do efficient work for Christ. Rev. Mr. Marsh and Archdeacon Collison took part in this meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting a short business session was held, at which a few unfinished matters were disposed of and a number of votes of thanks were passed, among which were one to the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Church for the splendid luncheon provided to the delegates, another to the hosts and hostesses who so kindly opened their houses to entertain the delegates during their stay in the city, another to the bishop of the diocese for the able, impartial and careful manner in which he presided over the sessions of the synod, another to the press for the most generous way in which they opened up their columns to give space to information concerning the doings of the synod and this in face of the fact that they must have been crowded with exhibition notes besides other special city news during the week.

A letter of condolence was drafted to be forwarded to Mrs. Tomlinson expressing the sorrow of the synod for the death of her husband, Rev. Mr. Tomlinson, who for forty years had done such excellent work among the Indians of this part of Canada.

A letter was also drafted to be sent to Rev. Mr. Keen expressing the great regret of the synod at his withdrawal from work in the diocese and expressing the hope that he and Mrs. Keen would be granted many happy years in their English home.

With a hymn and the benediction by the bishop there came to an end one of the most successful synods yet held in the diocese, all the members returning to their respective fields of labor having received a great spiritual uplift and also being much encouraged by the progress that had been made and the bright prospects for the future of the church in Northern B. C.

Last Performance Tonight.

The Pollard Juvenile Opera Company, undoubtedly the best company of its kind that has appeared in Prince Rupert, closes a remarkably successful engagement tonight with "Pinafore." As this will be the last chance of seeing this aggregation of good singers, clever comedians and comedienne, a packed house is almost assured.

The final in the five-a-side tournament was played last night and resulted in a win for the Grand Trunk team by two goals to nil. It was a very fast game and in the judgment of the spectators the best men won. Again Kinghorn repeatedly saved his team from defeat by brilliant play.
