Francois Lake News

By AGNES H. NEAVE
Daily News Correspondent

Earl Corliss and Frank Lind drove here from Kitimat this week where they hope to do some hunting. They report that about 1800 men have been laid off at Kitimat. They found the road quite good.

We had quite a difficult time in the store in the summer with our eggs. They are brought in large boxes from the farms, and we sell them across the counter by the dozen, but we were finding it awkward without the little one dozen cartons to pack the eggs in. Sometimes we had to put them in paper bags, which isn't at all a handy way to carry eggs home. So I pinned up a note asking anyone who had some egg cartons they didn't want to bring them in for us to use.

A very kind friend in Prince Rupert must have taken this to heart for yesterday along came a cardboard box packed with dozens of egg cartons. What a lot of kind and thoughtful folk there are. Apart from the help of having these cartons, there's such a nice feeling that someone took all this trouble to pack and send them to us.

Bill Cutt, Jack Young and Boot Sangster drove in from Kitimat and are hunting in the district. It took them only one hour and 15 minutes to drive from Kitimat to Terrace.

At the Women's Institute meeting at Mrs. Alford Harrison's home on Thursday afternoon, officers were chosen for the coming year. than any which are possible now.

As I see it on this Armistice morning of 1957, our task is threefold. We must keep our society and our institutions free, strong, and rooted in enduring values. Working in untity and co-operation wth our allies, we must keep our defences, economic, political and military, strong. Above all, through a flexible and imaginative diplomacy, at the United Nations and anywhere else that is available, we should exploit every opportunity, indeed create opportunities, to negotiate differences with those whom we may now fear but with whom we have to share this planet for better or for worse.

In that course, followed steadily and not by spasms; with positve actions rather than panic reactions; based on a strength which is more than military, lies our best hope for a peace, with law and order; a peace which will be endurable and perhaps, therefore, enduring.
