Lands minister to speak here

British Columbia Lands and Forests Minister R. G. Williston will speak at a public meeting here March 28 in support of the Social Credit party.

Arthur Murray, president of the Prince Rupert Social Credit party group, said the minister is coming here in the course of a whirlwind tour of northern B.C. He is to speak in Terrace March 27 and in Kitimat March 29.

Deadline strict for Little League registrations

Prospective Little League baseball players have only one day to obtain their registration forms for the 1958 season.

League president W. A. Gordon said today entry blanks will be available at the Civic Centre from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. March 29.

Filled out correctly and in full, the forms can be returned on April 5, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

No registrations can be accepted after April 5, Mr. Gordon said.

Valuable junk

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — A woman admitted recently to Sunnyside home for the aged brought with her some items she described as "old junk, torn papers and things." Mrs. Philip Livick, superintendent of the home, told the board operating the institution Thursday that the articles were examined later and found to be bonds valued at $20,000.
