Hotelmen Leave 12 On Basepaths

By KEN SPECHT

Although outhit by Hotelmen 10-9, Gordon and Anderson came out on top 10-8 in a Prince Rupert and District baseball league fixture at Roosevelt Park last night.

The hard, free-hitting fixture saw the teams belt out a total of 19 hits. Hotelmen collected 10 of these safeties but their failure to send runners across home plate was their downfall. They left 12 men straddling the bases while G and A left only two.

LOSE EARLY LEAD

Hotelmen took the lead early in the second inning when Yerema and Dahl came home on McKay's single. However, they lost it in the bottom of the second when three G and A tallies crossed the plate. Singles by Hartwig and Dunbar, a double by Bill Morrison and two overthrows by catcher Rey McKay accounted for these runs.

A smart double play by Hartwig, Smith and Kilpatrick in the third helped extinguish a possible Hotel rally.

CATCHER'S NIGHTMARE

The game was a nightmare for catchers of both teams, especially Rey McKay who was continually hit and bruised by glancing ball. When Girodano relieved him in the fifth he was also immediately hit by a glancing ball. McKay allowed six passed balls, as did Lavik.

After four complete innings of play led 5-3. The fifth inning saw G and A rack up five runs to Hotelmen's four.

Although Hotelmen threatened in the next inning, G and A retained the edge for the rest of the game.

Adams was relieved by Gordy Cameron in the fifth after allowing eight hits, three walks, and striking out two.

But Cameron's efforts were all in vain as his teammates couldn't seem to get home.

Loading the bases in the crucial sixth and seventh innings they watched G and A's superior fielding and pitching halt their threats. In the seventh, Dunbar replaced L'Strange and put out the fire, striking out pinch-hitter Ron Cameron who came up with the bases loaded. L'Strange allowed 10 hits, seven walks and struck out one.

Hotelmen will seek revenge when both teams meet again Sunday at Roosevelt Park.

Phils Not Kidding In Drive for Lead

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Maybe those Philadelphia Phillies aren't kiddin'. When they can take five of seven from Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and Robin Roberts gives up just one home run in 20 innings, it's no joke to the other contenders.

The Phillies did just that Thursday night, with Robin—the gopher ball king—holding the robust Redlegs to eight hits while his mates came through with three home runs to beat the National League leaders 6-2.

That gave the Phillies the series 2-1 and shaved them within 1½ games of Cincinnati again, although they remained in third place. The Dodgers, also 1½ out, retained a five-percentage point edge over Philadelphia when their game with the Chicago Cubs was postponed by fog.

Fourth-place Milwaukee lost to the New York Giants 2-0, and stayed three games back. St. Louis, 5½ games behind in fifth, swatted Pittsburgh 6-0.

SOX FAR IN FRONT

Things aren't as close in the American League. Chicago's White Sox continued their breakneck pace, defeating Boston 3-2 for a three-game sweep and their fourth in a row. Second-place New York, five games back, slugged Cleveland's third-place Tribe for the third day in a row, this time 14-5 on 20 hits that plunked the Injuns 8½ games behind.

Detroit replaced Boston in fourth, only a half game away from the Tribe, with a 7-6 victory over Washington. Baltimore defeated Kansas City 8-3.

Roberts gave up nothing louder than a triple while gaining his eighth complete game, tops in the majors, and drawing up to the 500 mark for the first time this season with his sixth victory.

Stan Lopata, who had two of the Phils' 10 hits, and rookie Bob Bowman hit two-run homers and Rip Repulski unloaded a solo shot to hand Don Gross his second defeat.

Mounties Drop One

By The Canadian Press

San Francisco Seals and Vancouver Mounties retained their one-two positions in the Pacific Coast Baseball league last night as Seals went down to defeat 2-0 in Hollywood and Mounties lost a hometown 4-2 decision in 13 innings to Portland Beavers.

The Mounties have now drawn two thirds again as many fans to their home games as they had this time last year. At last night's 13-inning thriller they passed the 100,000 mark.

Attendance to date at Capilano Stadium reached 100,500 in 22 games. Last year at the same time the total stood at about 60,000. In other Coast League fixtures Los Angeles won 1-0 at Seattle and San Diego blasted Sacramento 8-3 in 16 innings.

Golf Tourney Slated Sunday

Terrace and Prince Rupert golfers will be going all out for the low scores Sunday when the Terrace Golf and Country club stages its annual medal play championship.

Other dates for golfers to make note of are:

June 30, Skeena Valley open mixed ball tournament.

July 1, inter-city match for the Kitimat trophy donated by E. R. Radley.
